CONTENTS

Introduction
Sarah Nilsen and Sarah E. Turner

PART I: THEORIES OF COLORBLINDNESS

1. Shades of Colorblindness: Rethinking Racial Ideology in the United States
Ashley (“Woody”) Doane

2. Rhyme and Reason: “Post-Race” and the Politics of Colorblind Racism
Roopali Mukherjee

3. The End of Racism? Colorblind Racism and Popular Media
Eduardo Bonilla-Silva and Austin Ashe

PART II: ICONS OF POST-RACIAL AMERICA

4. Oprah Winfrey: Cultural Icon of Mainstream (White) America
Janice Peck

5. The Race Denial Card: The NBA Lockout, LeBron James, and the Politics of New Racism
David J. Leonard and Bruce Lee Hazelwood

6. Representations of Arabs and Muslims in Post-9/11 Television Dramas
Evelyn Alsultany
7. Maybe Brown People Aren’t So Scary If They’re Funny: Audience Readings of Arabs and Muslims on Cable Television Comedies
   Dina Ibrahim

PART III: REINScribing WHITENESS

8. “Some People Just Hide in Plain Sight”: Historicizing Racism in Mad Men
   Sarah Nilsen

   C. Richard King

10. BBFFs: Interracial Friendships in a Post-Racial World
    Sarah E. Turner

PART IV: POST-RACIAL RELATIONSHIPS

    Shilpa Davé

    Philip A. Kretsedemas

13. Race in Progress, No Passing Zone: Battlestar Galactica, Colorblindness, and the Maintenance of Racial Order
    Jinny Huh

About the Contributors

Index