Dear North Bay Friends,

Thank you so much for all your prayers and well wishes while I was in the hospital. Thank you Pastor Danny for the visit. I so enjoyed it. I am home now and trying to do all the right kinds of things to stay well.

Looking Ahead:

Mark Friday, July 20th on your calendar. We are going to the Clearwater Threshers Baseball Game at the Shark Cafe. Ticket prices will be announced and include wonderful seats in the shade on the upper level, private elevator, all you can eat for three hours, beautiful fireworks display, and your ticket for the game. This is always a popular event for our church. Watch for our sign up table in the Gathering Place in July. Don't miss out on lots of fun and fellowship. Invite your friends, relatives, associates and neighbors.

In the Season of "Who?":

We find ourselves in times of transition; we get anxious; we try to force fit things; and in all of that, we risk missing whom God may be providing for us in such a time as this. Are you in a season of "Who?" You may not be able to let go all the anxiety. But you may be able to interrupt it long enough to breathe and to seek God's voice and the Spirit's leading. It's there. And often, it's the voice reminding us to ask a question we may not have thought to ask in our anxiety-driven tunnel vision.

Feel like painting?:

We're painting the choir room Monday and Tuesday morning at 9:00 am. Helpers are welcome.

Thought of the Day:

Feeling gratitude and not expressing it is like wrapping a present and not giving it.
