2012 SOUTHWESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

HISTORY

The SWAC Football Championship Game began in 1999, with conference teams beginning play in an East-West divisional format, allowing division winners to meet on the field to decide a champion.

Through an agreement forged with the City of Birmingham, the Southwestern Athletic Conference staged its first championship game at historic Legion Field.

On Saturday, December 11, 1999, the Jackson State University Tigers (East Champion) and the Southern University Jaguars (West Champion) kicked off the inaugural Southwestern Athletic Conference Football Championship game.

In a thriller, Southern responded from an early deficit to capture a 31-30 win.

In 13 years of the SWAC Championship game, eight of the 10 conference schools have played for the title.

From the Western Division, Grambling State has earned seven trips to Birmingham – the most of any SWAC school – and holds a 6-1 record in the championship game.

Southern has played in three title games holding a 2-1 record, while Prairie View A&M, Texas Southern, and Arkansas-Pine Bluff each have one appearance.

UAPB is the only of that group not to have claimed a title. Alabama A&M has represented the Eastern Division on six occasions and holds a 1-5 record.

Alabama State is 1-3 in four appearances, while Jackson State is 1-2.

Mississippi Valley State and Alcorn State have never appeared in the SWAC Championship Game.

In all, the Western Division is 10-3 over the Eastern Division and has won four straight in the 13-year history of the event.
