2014 GAME NOTES

THE RETURN OF 00-SOUL

For the first time in eight seasons a new head coach roams the sidelines for the Jackson State Tigers. The 2014 season marks the first for head coach Harold Jackson at JSU. Following a successful NFL playing and coaching career, as well as coaching at other high profile college football programs, Jackson brings his brand of football to his alma mater. Jackson has vowed to bring excitement, discipline and a product that the entire state of Mississippi will be proud of. While a player at JSU, Jackson received the nickname of 00-Soul (double -0 Soul) because of his cool demeanor on and off the field.

PUT A RING ON IT

JSU head coach Harold Jackson is determined to get the Tigers back to the SWAC championship game, but this time with a different outcome. "I didn't come here to put a team together because we already have a good team. I came here to finish a job that this group has already started." Over the last two seasons the Tigers have gone to the SWAC title game and has lost each time in overtime. In 2012, the Tigers fell 21-24 to UAPB in OT. In 2013 the Tigers fell to Southern 27-34 in OT.

DEFENSIVE CHANGES

Under defensive coordinator Derrick Burroughs, the Tigers will switch from a 4-3 defense to a 3-4 defense. Over the past six seasons, the Tigers have had one of the top defenses in the SWAC. JSU has been consistently ranked in the top three defenses in the league.

RUN & SHOOT - JACKSON STYLE

JSU offensive coordinator Timmy Chang will bring a brand of football to the capital city that Tiger fans are used to. Chang, who is a disciple of Hal Mumme and June Jones, has brought the run & shoot offense back to the magnolia state. Tiger fans will be reminded of the 2010 and 2011 JSU offenses that were triggered by All-American Casey Therriault. JSU's then OC Ernest Wilson was also a Hal Mumme pupil.
