- For the first time in tournament history, the Southwestern Athletic Conference will hold the baseball tournament at the New Orleans MLB Urban Youth Academy at Wesley Barrow Stadium
- · Last season, the tournament was held in Fort Worth, Texas at LaGrave Field. The move marks the third site in three seasons for the SWAC Baseball Tournament. The league held the 2012 tournament in Baton Rouge, La. at Lee-Hines Field on the campus of Southern University
- · Alabama A&M, Alabama State, Mississippi Valley State, and Arkansas-Pine Bluff are the only member institutions to yet when a SWAC baseball tournament championship
- The SWAC Baseball tournament is a double elimination tournament bracket consisting of eight teams with split seeding. The seeding is determined as a result of the top four teams from the final regular season standings of the SWAC Eastern and Western Divisions
- Southern holds the SWAC record with 26 baseball championships dating back to 1959. Defending SWAC tournament Champions, Jackson State, follows with 15 titles with Grambling State capturing nine. Prairie View A&M holds three crowns while Texas Southern carries two, followed by Alcorn State holding one
- Jackson State, Southern, Grambling State, and Prairie View A&M are the only programs to win consecutive baseball titles. Southern holds the lead with the most consecutive championships with four from 1996-99
- The tournament crown has switched hands in the last six seasons. The title moved with Texas Southern (2008), Southern (2009), Grambling State (2010), Alcorn State (2011), Prairie View A&M (2012) and Jackson State (2013). It's the first run of different champions in a six-year span
- · Last year, Jackson State captured its 15th overall baseball title and first since 2000 after defeating Prairie View A&M, 6-2, in the championship final
- The Southwestern Athletic Conference has ties with MLB's Urban Invitational in conjunction with the Urban Youth Academies. The 2014 edition shifted from Houston to New Orleans and featured four teams from the state of Louisiana including SWAC rivals Southern and Grambling State (LSU and UNO). Four venues played host including the New Orleans UYA. In 2013, the Urban Invitational exclusively featured HBCUs with all four teams coming out of the SWAC. Alabama State, Southern, Texas Southern and Prairie View A&M played in the round-robin at Minute Maid Park

ABOUT NEW ORLEANS UYA

The Major League Baseball Urban Youth Academy at Wesley Barrow Stadium in New Orleans' Pontchartrain Park officially reopened in 2012 following a $6.5 million renovation project by MLB and the City of New Orleans. The academy provides free, year-round baseball and softball instruction and other educational services for youth from the communities throughout southern Louisiana.

The new Wesley Barrow Stadium replaces a 55-year-old facility and has a capacity for 650 fans, with a 200-square-foot climate-controlled press box. a public address system and new LED scoreboard. It also features administration facilities, including two 300-square-foot conference rooms. The baseball field also features professional-sized artificial turf with a clay pitcher's mound, while the tee ball and softball fields are natural turf with bleachers. Other facilities include a three-lane batting practice cage outdoors and a two-lane indoor batting practice building

- · Southern became the only school to have played in all seven editions of the Urban Invitational. Grambling State made its third appearance in 2014
- · Grambling State makes this year's tournament field after missing last season's tournament. In-state rival, Southern, was eliminated after making an apearance among the top eight in 2013

CONFERENCE FLASHBACK

- In his third year at the helm, Melendez spearheaded Alabama State to program milestones including: overall record (34-19), conference mark (21-3) mark and back-to-back 30-win seasons. The Hornets won all their regular season conference series for the first time en route to its first Eastern Division championship since 1994. The Hornets historic season included wins over Auburn and No. 4 Miami
- Alabama A&M headlined the conference during week nine capturing its first ever win over Samford with 5-3 victory
- Last year's tournament champions of the only two NCAA Division I HBCU conferences met April 4-5 when Jackson State hosted Savannah State (MEAC). JSU swept SSU to claim the three-game series
- The seventh edition of the The Major League Baseball Urban Invitational shifted from Houston to southern Louisiana. This year's Invitational featured four teams from the state of Louisiana and two Southwestern Athletic Conference and rivals Southern and Grambling State. Southern is the only school to have played in all seven editions of the MLB Urban Invitational
- Collegiate Baseball has selected Alabama State pitcher T.J. Renda among its 2014 Louisville Slugger Preseason All America Team. The announcement was made in December prior to the start of the 2014 college baseball season
- In June, Grambling State baseball legend, Ralph Garr, was enshrined into the National College Baseball Hall of Fame on Saturday during the Night of Champions at Lubbock Memorial Civic Center
- In November, Prairie View A&M announced the construction of a new baseball field to include covered grandstands with 512 total seats (192 chair backed seats with the remaining seats will be bleacher seating).
- In the fall, Southern broke ground on its new baseball facility. The $1.4 million, 4,200 square foot facility, will house locker rooms, coaches' offices, a team meeting area and other rooms
- Three baseball players out of the SWAC were selected in the 2013 Major League Baseball Draft. Angel Rosa (Alcorn State), Jose De Leon (southern), and Cory Jordan (Grambling State) were drafted moving the all-time count of SWAC baseball players selected overall to 249
- There has been a player from the SWAC drafted every year since the amatuer draft started in 1965
