OFFENSIVE

PLAYER OF THE YEAR

• Nykosi Simmons - After finishing sixth in the conference last season with a 4-3-3 record, Simmons aided in the advancement of the Devilettes closing this regular season with an almost perfect SWAC record.

She earned her offensive title after being nationally ranked by the NCAA in many categories including goals per game (1.26), points per game (2.74), total points (52) and total goals (24). Simmons' play also improved the overall national standing of MVSU, bringing the Devilettes to a first-place position in scoring offence (3.79), assists per game (3.11), points per game (10.68), total assists (59), total points (203) and total goals (72). She tops the Conference in six categories after grabbing three hat tricks.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR

• Kyleigh Io - Io raised a strong JKST defense, only accepting one conference loss on the year and one tie. She played and started in 16 of 16 matches for a total of 1238 minutes, recording two scores – one being a winning goal – for a .429 on target percentage

GOALIE OF THE YEAR & CO-FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR

• Faith Toennies - Toennies was honored twice after starting in eight of the 11 games. She allowed a league low 13 goals and tops the SWAC in save percentage at .856 (29th in the nation) and shutouts at five. She also secured top-10 places in the Conference in total saves (eighth) and saves per game (ninth) and was named SWAC Player of the Week on four separate occasions – the most of any student-athlete in the league on the season

CO-FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR

• Karrisa Fenwick - Arkansas-Pine Bluff's Fenwick established an impressive freshman resume, leading the young, Lady Lions to a 7-9-1 regular season finish

• In her first collegiate season, Fenwick registered a team-high 10 goals and managed a .455 on goal percentage. She holds top-10 spots in some conference categories including shots (seventh with 44) and goals (tied at sixth with 10)
