- To maintain fiscal management; and
- To legislate through Bylaws or Resolutions on subjects of general concern to the membership.

The members of the conference are committed to the philosophy of maintaining intercollegiate athletics as an integral part of the overall educational program. To this end, the conference believes in and subscribes to the fundamental principles of amateurism, institutional control, sound academic standards, financial aid, recruiting and ethical conduct that governs intercollegiate athletics, and the enforcement of rules and regulations as adopted by the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

CONFERENCE MISSION

The Southwestern Athletic Conference is organized exclusively for the purpose of encouraging, promoting, advancing and conducting intercollegiate sports activities and other recreational and not-for-profit activities among the members of the Conference. Its purposes are:

- To uphold the principles of institutional control of, and responsibility for all collegiate sports conducted by the members of this organization in conformity with the Constitution and Bylaws hereof;
- To stimulate and improve intercollegiate athletic sports;
- To comply with satisfactory standards of scholarship and amateur standing and good sportsmanship;
- To preserve and maintain the collegiate athletic records of the members of the Southwestern Athletic Conference, and make them available upon request;
- To cooperate with other amateur athletic organizations in the promotion and conduct of intercollegiate athletic contests;

HISTORY AT A GLANCE

In 1920, athletic officials from six Texas HBCUs — C.H. Fuller of Bishop College, Red Randolph and C.H. Patterson of Paul Quinn College, E.G. Evans, H.J. Evans and H.J. Starns of Prairie View A&M, D.C. Fuller of Texas College and G. Whitte Jordan of Wiley College — met in Houston, Texas, to discuss common interests. At this meeting, they agreed to form a new league, the SWAC.

Paul Quinn became the first of the original members to withdraw from the league when it did so in 1929. When Langston University of Oklahoma was admitted into the conference two years later, it began the migration of state-supported institutions into the SWAC. Southern University entered the ranks in 1934, followed by Arkansas AM&N (now the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff) in 1936 and Texas Southern University in 1954.

Rapid growth in enrollment of the state-supported schools made it difficult for the church-supported schools to finance their athletics programs and one by one they fell victim to the growing prowess of the state-supported colleges. Bishop withdrew from the conference in 1956, Langston in 1957 and Huston-Tillotson (formerly Samuel Huston) in 1959, one year after the admittance of two more state-supported schools: Grambling College and Jackson State College.

The enter-exit cycle continued in 1961 when Texas College withdrew, followed by the admittance of Alcorn A&M (now Alcorn State University) in 1962. Wiley left in 1968, the same year Mississippi Valley State College entered. Arkansas AM&N exited in 1970 and Alabama State University entered in 1982.

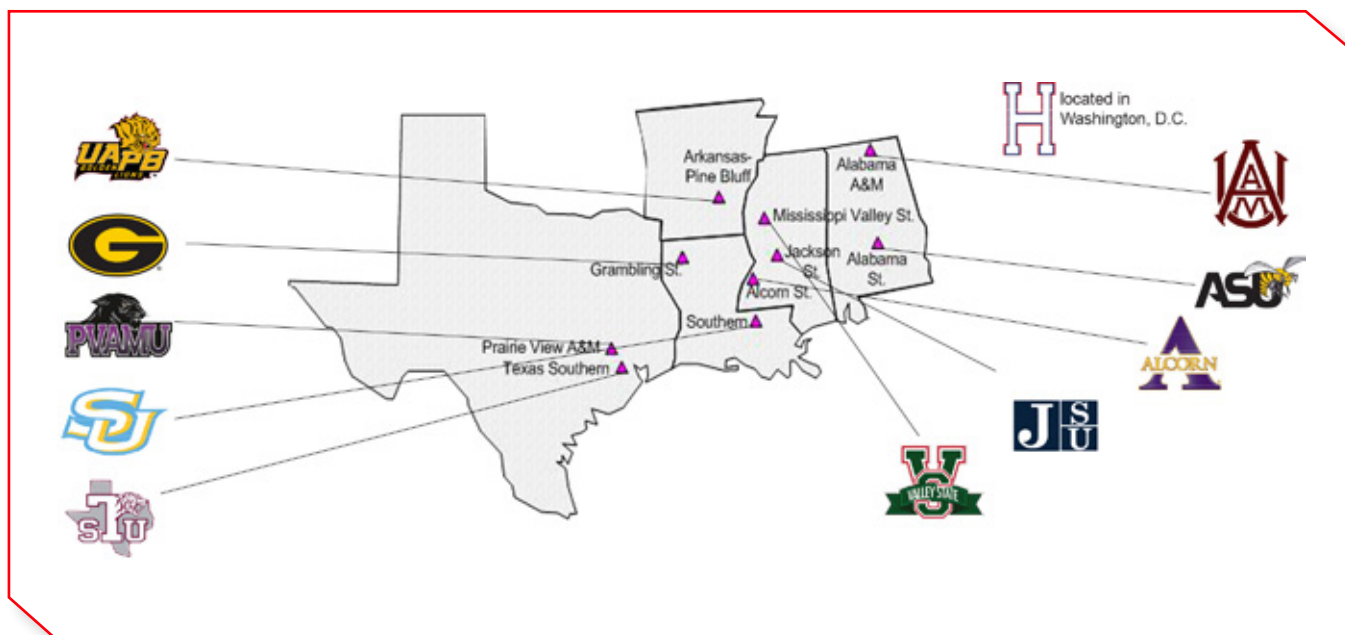

Arkansas–Pine Bluff (formerly Arkansas AM&N) rejoined the SWAC on July 1, 1997, regaining full-member status one year later. Alabama A&M University became the conference’s tenth member when it became a full member in September, 1999 after a one year period as an affiliate SWAC member. Most of the former SWAC members that have left the conference are currently a part of the Red River Athletic Conference of the NAIA.

Current championship competition offered by the SWAC includes competition for men in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track, outdoor track & field and tennis. Women’s competition is offered in the sports of basketball, bowling, cross country, golf, indoor track, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, tennis and volleyball.

ROBERT “DR. DOOM” BRAZILE

NFL HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

MINNEAPOLIS, MN – On the eve of Super Bowl LII, the NFL’s Hall of Fame committee selected eight new inductees into the class of 2018 for Canton on August 4.

One of which will be Jackson State alum Robert Brazile, who played his 10-year professional career with the Houston Oilers from 1975-1984.

The Mobile, Ala. native is widely credited with revolutionizing the outside linebacker position in a 3-4 formation defense. The late Bum Phillips, who coached him, called Brazile, “Lawrence Taylor before Lawrence Taylor.”

His combination of speed, strength and tackling allowed him to be one of the most fearsome of his time, being named to the NFL All-Decade team for the 1970s and was the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year in 1975.

His 1,282 tackles in second most all-time in Tennessee Titans/Houston Oilers franchise history and his unofficial total of 48 sacks (sacks were not an official statistic until 1982) combined with his six straight All-Pro selections stacks up with all-time greats of the game.

Brazile will be enshrined along with including first-ballot standouts Ray Lewis, Randy Moss, and Brian Urlacher as well as Terrell Owens, Brian Dawkins, Jerry Kramer and Bobby Beathard.

Brazile and Kramer were named by the Senior Selection Committee. Players and coaches that predate the 25-year window are considered by them.

A candidate must receive 80 percent of the vote to be inducted from the 48-member committee. The selection process bylaws provide that four to eight inductees will be selected.

The 64-year-old Brazile was the sixth pick in the 1975 NFL Draft by the Houston Oilers, where he would spend his entire career through 1984. He did not miss a game. Nicknamed “Dr. Doom”, Brazile was a seven-time Pro Bowler in all and five-time First Team All-Pro. As a linebacker, he made 13 interceptions.

Brazile will be the fourth player from Jackson State to be inducted in the NFL Hall of Fame joining Lem Barney, Jackie Slate and Walter Payton. ■

HISTORY OF THE SWAC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The SWAC Football Championship Game began in 1999, with conference teams beginning play in an East-West divisional format, allowing division winners to meet on the field to decide a champion. Through an agreement forged with the City of Birmingham, Alabama, the Southwestern Athletic Conference staged its first championship game at historic Legion Field. On Saturday, December 11, 1999 the Jackson State University Tigers (East Champion) and the Southern University Jaguars (West Champion) kicked off the inaugural Southwestern Athletic Conference Football Championship game.

In a thriller, Southern came from behind for a 31-30 win. The Grambling State Tigers held off a furious second half rally from the Alcorn State Braves to capture its second consecutive SWAC championship with a 40-32 victory in the 2017 Toyota SWAC Football Championship Game. This marks an impressive eighth championship game win for the Tigers, and second for Grambling State University coach Broderick Fobbs.

In 19 years of the SWAC Championship Game, nine of the 10 conference schools have earned a berth to play for the title with Grambling State and Alcorn State meeting in the championship for three consecutive seasons.

From the Western Division, Grambling has earned a trip to the title game 10 times – the most of any SWAC school – and has posted a 8-2 record in the championship game. Southern has played in the title game five times with a 3-2 record and Arkansas-Pine Bluff has made two appearances (1-1), winning its first title game in 2012. Prairie View A&M and Texas Southern have each appeared a single time and won in their debut.

Alabama A&M has represented the Eastern Division six times and has posted a 1-5 record in the championship game. Alabama State is 1-3 in its four appearances while Jackson State is 1-4. Mississippi Valley State has never appeared in the SWAC Championship Game.

In all, the Western Division is 14-5 over the Eastern Division and has won two straight in the 19-year history of the event. The game was played at NRG Stadium in Houston, Texas, from 2013-2017 and now will be returning to Birmingham, Ala. to play at historic Legion Field for the 2018 Championship.

Grambling State became the first team to win three consecutive championship games, downing Alabama A&M for the second time in three years.

A low scoring game for the first 45 minutes, Grambling led 10-8 heading into what proved to be an exciting final period. After a Bulldog field goal gave AAMU an 11-10 lead, Grambling State came right back on a Bruce Eugene-to-Thyron Douglas 23-yard touchdown pass. A two-point conversion gave GSU a 18-11 lead.

The Bulldogs answered with a touchdown of their own. John Keith threw a 15-yard scoring pass to Jeremiah Bonds. However, the PAT was blocked and left Alabama A&M trailing, 18-17 with just over eight minutes to play.

AAMU would get no closer as Grambling scored a touchdown just over one minute later. Eugene threw his second touchdown pass of the quarter to Thyron Anderson as the Tigers extended to a 25-17 lead with just under seven minutes to play.

The Bulldogs scored on a safety late to trail 25-19 with 17 seconds to play, but Grambling sealed the win on a 70-yard interception return for touchdown by Chris Brown on the final play of the game.

One year later, Alabama State exacted revenge on Southern, scoring 33 second-half points to take a 40-35 win.

Offensive MVP QB Tavaris Jackson combined for 392 yards and led the Hornets to five second-half touchdowns and led the Hornets from two 14-point deficits in the third quarter. Trailing 28-14, Jackson led ASU to back-to-back touchdowns. Jackson's one-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter, and Keldrick Williams 1-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter tied the game at 28-all less than one minute into the fourth quarter.

Southern QB Thomas Ricks moved the Jaguars downfield on the next possession to regain the lead. Completing a seven-play, 72-yard drive, Ricks threw a 30-yard touchdown pass to Antonio Overstreet put the Jaguars back on top, 35-28 with 10:58 to play.

The rest of the game, however, belonged to the Hornets. Williams' two-yard scoring run brought the Hornets within one with 9:36 to play as the extra point was missed. Alabama State marched back down on the next possession to take the lead for good. The game-winning six-play, 48-yard drive ended with Williams' fourth touchdown run of the game with 6:23 to play give the Hornets the final margin.

Getting plays in all three facets of the game is simply important to most coaches in college football. Grambling State found success in all three phases as they defeated Jackson State 41-9 to claim the 2008 SWAC Football Title.

The GSU Tigers found early success as Greg Dillion (Offensive Most Outstanding Player) engineered scoring drives on the first two possessions. Dillon found Kiare Thompson for a five-yard pass with just over seven minutes remaining in the first quarter. GSU would get the ball back and score on a 39-yard Dillon to Dante Cheek pass play.

While neither team managed a score in the second quarter, the game was broke open in the third. Grambling State outscored JSU 21-9 on the strength of a defensive unit that forced a fumble and an interception - both which led to Grambling State touchdowns.

Not to be outdone, the GSU special teams struck early in the third period as David Stuckman returned a kickoff 91 yards - making the score 20-3. The lead increased by seven when Dillin found Thompson for a seven-yard strike with 8:24 remaining in the third period.

Jackson State's offense looked to add a spark to the team when backup quarterback Michael Mosely found Carlos Everett for a 66-yard catch and run to cut into GSU's lead. After forcing a fumble, Dillon led GSU on a four-play drive culminating in a one-yard scoring run.

For much of Saturday afternoon's SWAC Championship Game, it seemed Prairie View's dream season would come to a nightmare ending. However, quarterback K. J. Black had just enough magic in his powerful right arm to carry the Panthers to a 30-24 win over Alabama A&M.

With fewer than 20 seconds remaining in the game, Prairie View was forced to punt. The Bulldogs went all out for a block, leaving Thomas Harris all alone. The All-American split the first two defenders and sprung to the outside with the aid of a crushing block. There was only was man between Harris and history. And, backup running back Michael Jason made the most important play of his life - and one of the most important in Prairie View history - and he wrapped Harris around the ankles, all but sealing the win.

Alabama A&M's (7-5) mistakes contributed to their defeat. The Bulldogs committed 13 penalties for 112 and two crucial fumbles. The second fumble came midway in the fourth quarter when Alabama A&M quarterback Desmond Mason was sacked as he tried to rally the Bulldogs after Prairie View moved ahead 23-21.

Prairie View quickly capitalized on the turnover as Black marched the Panthers 47 yards in five plays, capped by a 22-yard touchdown toss to Weeden.

Black - the game's offensive MVP - finished the contest completing 18 of 28 passes for 258 yards an three touchdowns. Donald Babers rushed for 78 yards and one touchdown on 17 carries. For Alabama A&M, Deaunte Mason was 12 of 27 for 154 yard and one touchdown. Mason also rushed for 110 yards and a score. Ulysses Banks also contributed 109 rushing yards on 20 totes.

Texas Southern did in the 2010 championship game what it had done all year. The Tigers rode on the strength of their defense and wound up with a SWAC championship to show for it. TSU defeated Alabama State 11-6 at Legion Field in the 2010 Farmers Insurance SWAC Football Championship Game.

The toughest defense in the SWAC, and #2 ranked in the nation, and led by SWAC Defensive Player of the Year and SWAC Championship Game Defensive MVP, Dejuan Fulghum, the Tigers held the Hornets to 72 total yards and an average of just 1.7 yards per play. The "212" defense, named for the boiling point when water turns to steam, even scored two points of its own.

After the TSU offense took the opening drive behind backup quarterback and SWAC Championship Game Offensive MVP, Riko Smalls, 82 yards and scored on a Martin Gilbert 2-yard touchdown run, the Tigers next scored on Marquis Jackson's safety for an 8-0 lead. Robert Hersh nailed a 28 yard field goal with 7:34 to play in the first half, and Texas Southern had all the offense it would need on the day. Smalls played in the game instead of Arvell Nelson, who was sidelined by the TSU administration prior to the game because of uncertainty pertaining to his NCAA eligibility.

Alabama State's defense was nearly as good as TSU's. After the opening drive from the Tigers ended with a touchdown, the Hornets gave up just 227 yards and 3 points the rest of the day. Brandon Roberts racked up 16 total tackles for the Hornets. Fulghum finished with 10 tackles, 7 solo, 3.5 tackles-for-loss, 2.0 sacks, and a forced fumble.

Alabama State made it interesting with 1:20 to play when Devin Dominguez found T.C. McWilliams in the back of the endzone for a 2-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 11-6. The 19-yard, 2-play drive was set up Jacques Rickerson 49-yard punt return that kept the Hornets with a pulse late in the game. TSU, however, doused those hopes by recovering the on-side kick and running out the clock.

The title is the first for the Tigers since sharing the honors in 1968 with Alcorn State and Grambling.

Jacarde Carter returned a fumble 66 yards for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter to give Grambling State a 16-15 victory over Alabama A&M in the Farmers Insurance SWAC Football Championship Game presented by Toyota on Saturday.

Grambling (8-4) won its sixth SWAC championship in the 13-year history of the event. Four of those wins have come against Alabama A&M, which fell to 1-5 all-time in the title game.

An 11-yard touchdown run by Kaderius Lacey and a 36-yard scoring pass from Deaunte Mason to Terence Pride helped A&M (8-4) build a 15-0 lead late in the first half. The Bulldogs missed both extra-point attempts.

Grambling closed the gap to 15-9 midway through the third quarter on an 80-yard touchdown pass from D.J. Williams to Mario Louis.

The Tigers won despite completing four passes and being outgained in total yardage 337-182.

Lacey gained 95 yards and set an A&M record for rushing yards in a season with 1,152.

A record-setting 95-yard touchdown pass from Arkansas-Pine Bluff quarterback Benjamin Anderson to Willie Young with two minutes left in regulation forced overtime, as the Lions came from two touchdowns behind to beat Jackson State 24-21 in the Toyota SWAC championship game at Legion Field. It was the first SWAC title for UAPB (10-2) since 1966.

Tyler Strickland's 26-yard field goal in overtime capped off 17 unanswered points for UAPB, who trailed 21-7 in the first half. Jackson State (7-5) had the ball first in overtime but Ryan Deising's 43-yard field goal attempt was blocked.

Jackson State dominated the first half, outgaining the Lions 270-78, but led only 21-14 at halftime. Clayton Moore threw a 40-yard touchdown pass to Rico Richardson and rushed for another score, but his fumble at the end of the first half kept things close.

After Moore was hit from behind by linebacker Xavier Lofton, linebacker Bill Ross scooped up the fumble and raced 73 yards for a touchdown with four seconds left in the half. Ross' touchdown tied a UAPB record for longest fumble return for a touchdown.

UAPB cut the lead in half on a 1-yard plunge on the first play of the second quarter. But, Moore gave the Tigers a 14-point lead with a 1-yard run of his own with 2:29 left in the half.

Dray Joseph connected with Lee Doss for a 16-yard touchdown pass to hand Southern University a 34-27 double overtime victory over Jackson State on Saturday in the 2013 Toyota SWAC Football Championship inside Reliant Stadium.

SU (9-4) wins its third Southwestern Athletic Conference championship game in school history in front of a crowd of 38,985. After SU scored, during the ensuing drive, Tommy Gooden stepped out of bounds to negate what would have been a five-yard touchdown pass from Clayton Moore to help JSU (7-4) even the game.

SWAC Championship Defensive MVP, Anthony Balancier, intercepted Moore to end JSU's first attempt in overtime. He led SU's defense with 11 tackles to complement a forced fumble and two break ups.

Joseph, SWAC co-offensive postseason and game MVP, finished 27-of-46 for 337 yards passing with three touchdowns, including a pair to Willie Quinn, to power the Jaguars. Joseph hit Quinn for a 34-yard touchdown to give Southern a 10-0 lead.

JSU retaliated with 14 points when Moore hit Pendleton again for a 28-yard strike before Antonio Sutton collected an 11-yard fumble recovery to take the lead, 27-24. The Jaguars responded when Darrius Coleman scored from one-yard out to give SU a 27-24 slight advantage with 4:47 remaining.

Ryan Deising hit a 37-yard field goal for the Tigers as time expired to send the game into overtime.

The Alcorn State University football team won its first Southwestern Athletic Conference Championship Game in program history Saturday, claiming its first league title since 1993 in storybook fashion at NRG Stadium in Houston, Texas. Braves quarterback John Gibbs Jr. returned to his hometown of Houston, completing 20 of 30 passes for 245 yards and three touchdowns to lead Alcorn to a 38-24 victory over defending SWAC Champion Southern University in front of 39,583 fans in the home of the NFL's Houston Texas.

Gibbs, the game's Offensive Most Valuable Player, rushed for 137 yards and caught a pass for five yards. His performance broke Alcorn legend Steve McNair's single-season rushing record by a quarterback and made Gibbs the first quarterback to rush for 1,000 yard season in school history. He distributed the ball effectively, finding eight different receivers with none of them finishing with more than 51 yards receiving.

Alcorn senior linebacker William Thomas II earned Defensive MVP honors after leading the Braves with nine tackles. The Braves' defense held Southern to just one offensive touchdown. The Jaguars' other 17 points came on a punt return, a punt block recovery and a field goal.

The Braves dominated the game statistically, but their special teams woes allowed the Jaguars to stay in contention as late as the fourth quarter. They outgained Southern 480 to 268, including 230 to 108 on the ground.

Alcorn's victory marked the first time since 2007, and second time ever, that a Mississippi-based school won the SWAC Championship Game. Jackson State defeated Grambling State, 42-31, in the 2007 title game.

A crowd of 40,352 witnessed a record-setting day by Alcorn State as the Braves prevailed 49-21 over Grambling State to claim the 2015 Southwestern Athletic Conference Football Championship, becoming the first repeat champion since the 2000-2002 Grambling State Tigers. The Braves rewrote the record books offensively, setting new SWAC Championship Game all-time highs in total yards of offense (613), rushing yards (411) and points scored (49).

After both teams traded punts to open the game, the defending champions struck first as a 84-yard sprint to paydirt by SWAC Championship Game Offensive MVP Darryan Ragsdale opened the scoring. With the run – his third attempt of the game – Ragsdale broke the SWAC Championship Game record for most rushing yards as well as the longest rush in the game's history. He ended the day with 191 yards on the ground.

The teams traded turnovers in the third quarter, when a fumble by Grambling's Martez Carter was scooped up by Alcorn State's Eric Foster, who returned it to the GSU 16-yard line. However, a holding penalty wiped out a Ragsdale score and on the next play, Grambling State's Troy Roach forced a fumble that was recovered by Derwyn Butler to stave off a potential score.

The attendance figure was the third-most in SWAC Championship Game history, as well as the most in the game's history since it moved to NRG Stadium and the most since 2007.

A big second-half lifted Grambling State to a 27-20 victory over defending champion Alcorn State in the 2016 Toyota SWAC Football Championship Game.

This marks the seventh championship game win for the Tigers, and the first for GSU coach Broderick Fobbs.

Offensive MVP Martez Carter -- who shattered the SWAC Championship Game record for most all-purpose yards with 348 -- scored the eventual game-winner -- a 31-yard scamper to paydirt with 3:38 left -- to cap a second half that saw Grambling (10-1, 9-0 SWAC) outscore the Braves 27-3 after falling behind 17-0 at half.

Alcorn State struck first when a Carter fumble just outside was pounced on by Darien Anderson. Four plays later, Lenorris Footman took it in from 15 yards out.

After being shut down for the first half, Grambling's offense woke up in the second half thanks to a big 73-yard kick return by Carter to open the third quarter. Devante Kincade hooked up with Verlan Hunter from 29 yards out for a score. After an Alcorn drive came up empty, Grambling hit paydirt again thanks to a one-yard plunge by Lyndemian Brooks to make it 17-14.

Alcorn State (5-6, 5-4 SWAC) stretched the lead to 20-14 early on in the fourth quarter, but Grambling tied it on a wild play where Carter took a pass from Kincade but fumbled right before crossing the plane, only for the ball to be grabbed by Dominique Leake and taken in the end zone. The ensuing PAT was blocked, but Carter's late score was the difference.
