Alcorn State captures SWAC Championship with victory over Southern

LORMAN, Miss. | In a thrilling back-and-forth affair, Alcorn State rallied late and controlled the fourth quarter to outlast Southern 37-28 to claim their third SWAC Football Championship in the past five seasons and 16th conference title overall on Saturday at Jack Spinks-Marino Casem Stadium.

The Braves (9-3) advance to the Celebration Bowl as Alcorn State will represent the SWAC in the Air Force Reserve Celebration Bowl against MEAC representative North Carolina A&T, who also won their conference. The historic match up will take place on Saturday, Dec. 15 from Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta, Ga. with a kick-off set for noon ET / 11 a.m. CT.

In front of a capacity crowd of 22,500 fans, redshirt junior quarterback Noah Johnson combined for 282 yards as he completed 18-of-25 passes for 135 yards and ran 16 times for 147 yards with two rushing touchdowns. Johnson was named the Offensive Most Valuable Player.

Brelion Hollis tied the team-high in tackles with seven and also had a half a tackle for a loss of three yards with half a sack to lead the Braves. The junior linebacker from Monroe, La. was named the Defensive Most Valuable Player of the Game.

It also marked the first SWAC Championship title in three seasons for head coach Fred McNair, who has made it to the big game in all three seasons at the helm. SWAC Newcomer of the Year De'Shawn Waller averaged a robust 11.1 yards per carry as the junior racked up a game-high 177 yards on just 16 totes. Waller also flirted with the record for most yards in a SWAC title game (Fellow Brave Darryan Ragsdale-191 rushing yards versus Grambling State in the 2015 championship game).

Waller came out on hot early as he broke through with two first quarter touchdowns, one on a 13-yard scamper with 8:35 remaining to a cap an eight-play, 75-yard drive in 3:51, and the second on a game-breaking 83-yard touchdown run where he burst by all defenders without hardly being touched with 6:03 left.

The 83-yard run was the second longest in SWAC Football Championship Game history. Ragsdale retained his record-holding 84-yard touchdown in the 2015 title game against Grambling State.

In the fourth quarter, Waller came alive again as the Atlanta, Ga. native put it away with a 14-yard touchdown run up the middle to finish out a clock-eating 5:12 drive that spanned 68 yards on nine plays. Sophomore quarterback Ladarius Skelton gave the Jaguars (7-4) opportunities to win as the sopho-more finished 12-of-22 passes for 194 yards with one touchdown and one interception.

The Pine Bluff, Ark. native added 100 yards on 22 rushes and three touchdowns on the ground. in four games and still have it count as a redshirt year. Even so, football oversight committee members want to broaden the chance for student-athletes' voices to be heard.

Braves comes up short in Celebration Bowl

ATLANTA, Ga. | A dominant second-half effort was not enough for the Alcorn State University football team, as it fell shy of its sixth Black College National Championship in a 24-22 loss to North Carolina A&T State University during the 2018 Air Force Reserve Celebration Bowl.

North Carolina A&T (10-2) wasted no time getting on the board, taking the game's opening possession and marched 65 yards in five plays to tack on a touchdown via a 17-yard touchdown pass from Lamar Raynard to Zachary Leslie. After the sides traded punts, Alcorn (9-4) methodically traveled 84 yards in a 14-play, 7:12 drive capped by a Corey McCullough 29-yard field goal to put its first points on the board.

The contest evolved into a defensive struggle through much of the second quarter, as the Braves' defense completely bottled up the Aggies rushing attack. However, Noah Johnson and the Alcorn offense were slow to capitalize. On their second possession of the quarter, Johnson was picked off by North Carolina A&T's Timadre Abram, who returned it 21 yards down to the Alcorn 27-yard line.

The Braves' defense stiffened on the ensuing drive, forcing a pair of Raynard incompletions as the Aggies settled for a 36-yard field goal by Noel Ruiz that made the game 10-3 with 8:33 left in the half. Defense continued to rule until North Carolina A&T's final possession of the half, where Raynard managed to find some room in the Alcorn secondary.

Raynard hit Leslie for a 22-yard gain and connected with receiver Elijah Bell on three occasions during the drive, the final pitch-and-catch a 27-yard scoring strike to cap a six-play, 70-yard drive that 2:30 off the clock. After the point after, the Aggies held a 17-3 lead with 53 ticks left in the half.

Despite the deficit, Alcorn didn't blink as Johnson took the Braves down the field with his legs and arm, sandwiching a 13-yard scamper between a pair of 14-yard receptions by Chris Blair. Johnson then hooked up with Juan Anthony for a 26-yard completion, allowing McCullough to tack on another field goal – this one from 25 yards out – as the half came to a close. After punting on its opening drive of the third quarter, Alcorn's defense stepped up to halt an Aggie drive as Brady Smith picked off a Raynard pass at the Braves' 31-yard line.

Though the Braves stalled on the ensuing possession, the defense again rose to the occasion. A pair of Alcorn penalties put North Carolina A&T near midfield, and the Aggies appeared poised to strike after Raynard found Leslie for a 44-yard completion that brought the MEAC champions to Alcorn's 9-yard line.

The Braves allowed nothing further, as Raynard threw a pair of incompletions and on fourth down, Alcorn's Brelion Hollis snuffed out a Ernest Bush pass to Leroy Hill, stopping the latter for a loss of six on fourth and goal.

Johnson was 11-of-27 for 128 yards and rushed for 120 yards on 14 attempts. Waller carried the ball 19 times for 167 yards as Alcorn outrushed North Carolina A&T 328-94. Defensively, Hollis paced the Braves with 10 stops and 2.5 tackles for loss. Alcorn outgained North Carolina A&T 451-324, and edged the Aggies in total first downs, 20-17.

About the SWAC

In 1920, athletic officials from six Texas HBCUs — C.H. Fuller of Bishop College, Red Randolph and C.H. Patterson of Paul Quinn College, E.G. Evans, H.J. Evans and H.J. Starns of Prairie View A&M, D.C. Fuller of Texas College and G. Whitte Jordan of Wiley College — met in Houston, Texas, to discuss common interests. At this meeting, they agreed to form a new league, the SWAC.

Paul Quinn became the first of the original members to withdraw from the league when it did so in 1929. When Langston University of Oklahoma was admitted into the conference two years later, it began the migration of state-supported institutions into the SWAC. Southern University entered the ranks in 1934, followed by Arkansas AM&N (now the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff) in 1936 and Texas Southern University in 1954.

Rapid growth in enrollment of the state-supported schools made it difficult for the church-supported schools to finance their athletics programs and one by one they fell victim to the growing prowess of the state-supported colleges. Bishop withdrew from the conference in 1956, Langston in 1957 and Huston-Tillotson (formerly Samuel Huston) in 1959, one year after the admittance of two more state-supported schools: Grambling College and Jackson State College.

The enter-exit cycle continued in 1961 when Texas College withdrew, followed by the admittance of Alcorn A&M (now Alcorn State University) in 1962. Wiley left in 1968, the same year Mississippi Valley State College entered. Arkansas AM&N exited in 1970 and Alabama State University entered in 1982.

Arkansas–Pine Bluff (formerly Arkansas AM&N) rejoined the SWAC on July 1, 1997, regaining full-member status one year later. Alabama A&M University became the conference's tenth member when it became a full member in September, 1999 after a one year period as an affiliate SWAC member. Most of the former SWAC members that have left the conference are currently a part of the Red River Athletic Conference of the NAIA. Howard University became a charter member in women's soccer prior to the 2014 season.

Today, the SWAC, considered the premier HBCU conference, ranks among the elite in the nation in terms of alumni playing with professional sports teams, particularly in the sport of football.

On the gridiron, the conference as been the biggest draw on the Football Championship Subdivision level of the NCAA, leading the nation in average home attendance for much of the FCS's existence. In 1994, the SWAC fell just 40,000 fans short of becoming the first non-Football Bowl Subdivision conference to attract one million fans to its home games.

Current championship competition offered by the SWAC includes competition for men in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track, outdoor track & field and tennis. Women's competition is offered in the sports of basketball, bowling, cross country, golf, indoor track, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, tennis and volleyball.
