Here are some information you can send to help you solve your things. 1. Tell us where you face ads i.e. : URLs2 for example. Which browser are you using with Adlock? 3. Send a screenshot of the ad, so we know where the ads are placed. 4. What filter list do you use? Reporting this information (except safari users) allows us to filter list authors for correction. In some cases, it's not a filter problem at all. Sending this information allows us to separate a little more things and work on a resolution. Where do you find your filter list? 1. Click ABP icon2. Click Settings Gear in the right-hand side of Menu3. Click Adwankediao will see your filter lists here. On mobile? 1. Send us URL where you experience ad2. A screenshot of Ad3. A screenshot of your ad prevention settings is also helpful If you're here with the help of email, just answer the email with these details. Although you are welcome to respond to this topic. I still see the ABP icon in the top right-hand side of my Firefox toolbar. I have removed ABP several times and replaced this with no luck. I also installed Firefox and changed several times. I'm still watching ads and the ABP icon still looks. When I click on my browser, add to the tab, it appears that ABP is installed and enabled. If anyone has any suggestions please let me know. I'm running Windows 10 with the latest Firefox version.
