All judges, chaperones, and volunteers shall abide by the following:

1. BE RESPECTFUL TO PARTICIPANTS. Please avoid using vulgar language around participants– remember, they are middle schoolers.
2. WATCH OVER PARTICIPANTS. Please make sure to watch over participants with a keen eye; all suspicious behavior and accidents that occur must be reported to Tab.
Remember, participants may NOT leave campus during the tournament.
The San Diego Middle School Debate League is not responsible for participants' safety; that responsibility lies in the chaperones for each school.
3. JUDGE APPROPRIATELY. If you are judging, please do not vote based on school affiliations. If there are any personal conflicts, you are expected to report this to the tournament directors before round. Please do not vote based off of factors other than speaking and argumentation skills.
4. PLEASE ARRIVE TO ROUNDS IN A TIMELY MANNER.
5. DO NOT GIVE FOOD THAT WE PROVIDE FOR JUDGES TO COMPETITORS.
We're running on a tight budget and are trying to make sure there is enough food for all the judges.
6. DO NOT HESITATE TO CONTACT THE TOURNAMENT DIRECTORS. If anything seems odd, an NSDA rule has been violated in round, or you have witnessed an accident, please contact the tournament directors immediately.
