

The Raymond B. Furlong Invitational at Saint James School

6010 Vaughn Road Montgomery, AL 36116

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the administration, faculty, and students of the Saint James School forensics team, it is my pleasure to extend an invitation for you and your students to attend the 32nd annual Raymond B. Furlong Invitational, to be held on October 11 and October 12 on the Saint James School campus in Montgomery, Alabama. Please note that the RBF is a Semifinals Qualifier for the National Tournament of Champions (TOC) in Public Forum Debate, as well as Finals Qualifier in Speech Events. Debate events will be held on both Friday and Saturday, and individual events will be held on Saturday. Debaters are guaranteed at least five rounds five rounds in LD and PF before going into the required elimination rounds. Debaters may enter one additional IE event. The Lincoln-Douglas topic will be the topic of the October NSDA topic and the Public Forum debate topic will be the October NSDA topic. Those entering Individual events may enter up to two events. We will have a limited number of hired judges available for the tournament, so please indicate a need for hiring via email (lharrison@stjweb.org). Initial entry on the website is necessary; no phone or fax entries will be accepted. Entries will be accepted until 5:00 pm on Wednesday, October 2. We will only be accepting entries and changes on line. See the information page about specific drop deadlines and fees.

Sincerely,

Lonny Harrison
