A Resolution to Promote Ecotourism in Brazil to Preserve the Amazon Rainforest

- 1 WHEREAS, parts of the Amazon Rainforest are being destroyed at an alarming rate 2 under Jair Bolsonaro of Brazil; and
- 3 WHEREAS, the National Institute for Space Research (INPE) reports destruction of 4 an estimated 2,255 square kilometers of Brazilian Amazon Rainforest in 5 July 2018 alone, the highest level of deforestation registered by the INPE 6 in years; and
- 7 WHEREAS, Amazon trees account for one-quarter of the carbon dioxide absorbed by 8 the land each year and produce around a one-fifth of the world's oxygen; 9 and
- 10 WHEREAS, further destruction of the Amazon rainforest could lead to lasting 11 detrimental effects on the environment as well as those living in it; and
- 12 WHEREAS, Ecotourism is a known way of protecting both the environment and 13 the economies of areas with natural resources in need of protection; 14 now, therefore, be it
- 15 RESOLVED, the Congress here assembled shall promote, and encourage other 16 countries to invest in, ecotourism in Brazil to prevent destruction of the 17 Amazon Rainforest.

A Resolution to Ensure Legal Counsel to Immigrants Subject to Deportation

- 1 WHEREAS, Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) is currently holding 2 approximately 52,000 immigrants in detention centers and jails around 3 the country.
- 4 WHEREAS, Many of these detainees, fearing for their lives, sought asylum in the 5 United States to escape the violence and persecution in their countries of 6 origin.
- 7 WHEREAS, The Sixth Amendment states that, “In all criminal prosecutions, the 8 accused shall...have the assistance of counsel for his defense.”
- 9 WHEREAS, Crossing the border illegally is a civil crime, generally a misdemeanor.
- 10 WHEREAS, Most deportation proceedings stem from civil rather than criminal cases, 11 therefore the right to legal counsel often does not apply.
- 12 WHEREAS, The majority of detainees cannot afford to hire private counsel for their 13 defense.
- 14 RESOLVED, By the Congress here assembled should draft a proposed amendment to 15 the Sixth Amendment of the United States Constitution to include the 16 right to counsel for immigrants subject to deportation.
