A Resolution to Limit Undemocratic Electioneering

1. WHEREAS: The 2010 case Citizens United v. FEC declared the government can not infringe upon the independent expenditure of non-profits, corporations, unions, etc; and
2. WHEREAS: Lobbyists, PACS, and non-profits like Citizens United can now freely spend money to unbalance elections and power; and
3. WHEREAS: Multiple Supreme Court Justices spoke out against the possibility for additional corruption in Washington; and
4. WHEREAS: Groups like corporations, unions, and Citizens United qualify as 501(c) organizations, meaning they are exempt from federal and state taxes; and,
5. WHEREAS: The 2010 case Citizens United v. FEC ruled the participation in independent expenditure was constitutional, it is only lightly protected under the IRCS; and,
6. WHEREAS: These organizations cannot be outright banned.
7. RESOLVED: Removal of the exemption on taxes for any and all political activity by these organizations; and,
8. Limiting the spending of such organizations including Super and regular PACS, Labor Unions, Corporations, and nonprofits to $10 million annually; to,
9. Remove and or limit the power of said organizations on American elections and politicians.
