BE IT ENACTED BY THE STUDENT CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

WHEREAS The Republic of Turkey has aggressively threatened its fellow NATO member Greece and E.U. member Cyprus.

WHEREAS Turkey has acted against U.S. interests in the middle east, particularly in its invasion of Kurdistan, attacks on the Kurdish and Armenian people, and aggressive intervention in Syria.

WHEREAS Turkey has actively courted Russian military support and technology, jeopardizing the safety and secrecy of NATO military tactics and equipment.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, This Congress directs the U.S. Ambassador to NATO to express these grievances to Turkey and if not addressed, directs the ambassador to move to expel Turkey from NATO.

3 A RESOLUTION TO ENFORCE THE BASIC LAW OF HONG KONG

BE IT ENACTED BY THE STUDENT CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

WHEREAS The 1997 Basic Law of Hong Kong calls for Hong Kong to maintain both its capitalist way of life and a high degree of autonomy from China for 50 years after the transfer from Great Britain.

WHEREAS Under its new national security laws, China has begun to crackdown on the previously held rights, institutions, and economy of Hong Kong.

WHEREAS Because of this, China is in direct violation of its own international commitment with respect to Hong Kong.

WHEREAS Hong Kongers have been protesting in mass for over a year to oppose China and called on these United States to protect democracy in Hong Kong.

WHEREAS Both Britians and Hong Kongers only agreed to a reunification with China under the pretext of insured protection for 50 years which has since been violated.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, China has broken the fundamental agreement made in the basic law and therefore has broken the agreement entirely. Thus, this Congress no longer recognizes Hong Kong as a part of China.

FURTHER RESOLVED, In the eyes of this Congress, Hong Kong now reverts back to British control with the fate of its future to be determined by the democratic will of Hong Kong's citizens.
