MEMORANDUM FOR: Members of the United States Congress

SUBJECT: Iran Demands a Full US Withdrawal of US Military Support to Saudi Arabia and to be Removed from the list of State Sponsors of Terrorism

Iran has continued to escalate tensions in the region and intelligence believes that an attack may happen at any moment. In an effort to prevent an attack and keep the region stable, US intelligence has opened back door communication channels with Iran.

Iran has offered to stand down and end its threats if the US meets its two demands: (a) fully withdraw military support to Saudi Arabia and (b) remove Iran from the list of state sponsors of terror.

In exchange for the US meeting its demands, Iran promises to release the IAEA investigators being detained and reduce uranium enrichment levels to those originally agreed upon in the Iran deal.

US intelligence cannot confirm nor deny if Iran will stick to the agreement.
