GGSA STATE QUALS 2022 (BILL ORDER TBA)

A Resolution to Increase Mandated Police Training

- WHEREAS, over the last decade there has been increased awareness and debate regarding racially motivated killings by police officers; and
- WHEREAS, in many jurisdictions, police are woefully undertrained, sometimes graduating in as little as six weeks; and
- WHEREAS, when undertrained, many police officers are left to make quick decisions based on fear rather than rational best practices; and
- WHEREAS, many experts believe that increased and more focused training could both reduce police violence and improve officer safety; now, therefore, be it
- RESOLVED, by the Congress here assembled that all police departments must train new recruits for a minimum of 5 total years, 2 years off-duty and 3 years on-duty with an observer; and be it
- FURTHER RESOLVED, that officers must take further courses consisting of a minimum of 50 hours of racial bias training and a minimum of 50 hours of training on properly responding to people with disabilities and people under physical and mental duress.
