A Bill to Create a Government-Mandated Assault Weapon Buyback Program

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

SECTION 1. A federally run and funded program shall be set up to buy back all privately owned firearms that fit under the definition of an “Assault Weapon” as listed in Section 2.

SECTION 2. Assault weapons shall be defined as “semiautomatic firearms with a large magazine of ammunition that were designed and configured for rapid fire and combat use.”

SECTION 3. Revenue to offset the funds lost from this mandatory buyback shall be gained through a new 15% excise tax all firearms bought and sold in the United States.

SECTION 4. The specifics of the buyback program are indicated as follows:

A. Drop off points will be set up at designated locations where citizens can give up their weapons to be disposed of.

B. The amount given to citizens for each assault weapon will be based on the market value of the specific firearm in its present condition.

C. Failure to comply by six months after this law goes into effect will result in a two hundred dollar fine per month for each assault weapon.

SECTION 5. This law will take effect on February 5, 2022. If not renewed, the provisions within this bill shall expire on February 5, 2027.

SECTION 6. This bill shall be carried out by the Departments of Homeland Security and the Treasury.

SECTION 7. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

A Resolution to Grant Hawaii Sovereignty From the US Government

1 WHEREAS, There is a current Hawaiian Sovereignty movement and Hawaiians are
2 concerned with the state of their island because of the dependency on tourism and
3 the military.

4 WHEREAS, Hawaii's tourist economy has become harmful to the natives of the island,
5 resulting in high homelessness rates and higher prices.

6 WHEREAS, There is a scarce amount of land, and most of it is becoming 7 commercialized, therefore taken from the native people.

8 WHEREAS, In 1893 the Hawaiian government was illegally overthrown and unlawfully
9 annexed by the US government.

10 RESOLVED, By the Congress here assembled that the State of Hawaii shall have the opportunity for sovereignty, that shall be voted on by the state if passed by the US Congress.
