IQ or Intelligence Quotient is a measure of one's ability to solve problems, use logic, and grasp complexity.

EQ or Emotional Quotient is a measure of one's ability to recognize feelings in oneself and in others, and to apply that awareness in one's actions and choices.

ROUND 5 ACTUAL TOPIC

Assuming that these can be objectively measured, TH prefers a society that awards positions of power in government based on EQ over IQ.

ELIM ROUNDS

Elim World Schools Debates will use impromptu topics.
