

A Resolution to Amend the Constitution for Term Limits

1. Whereas, corruption has only increased and continued to be exposed within the federal
2. legislative branch of the government.
3. Whereas, the legislative branch, The House of Representatives and The Senate, are in
4. charge of making and passing every American bill and resolution but their credibility has
5. been lost to corruption.
6. Whereas, without the credibility of a branch of government, it can not be accepted that the
7. bills and resolutions are in the best interest of the American people and its allies.
8. Be it resolved that the Constitution shall be amended to add the following:
9. “Senators will only be allowed two consecutive terms - twelve years, and the House of
10. Representatives will only be allowed two consecutive terms - four Years, before
11. relinquishing their seat for a term before being allowed reelection”
12. This amendment will be sent to the states by a two-thirds vote. The amendment must then be
13. ratified by three-fourths of the State legislatures, or three-fourths of conventions called in each
14. State for ratification.

A Bill to Limit Diplomatic and Military Relations with the Philippines to Protect Human Rights

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

2 SECTION 1. The United States will suspend all military activities in conjunction with,
3 or to the sole benefit of the Philippines. Diplomatic relations will be reduced to a minimal
4 level that still allows communication and influence with the Philippines. Any diplomatic 5 preferential treatment shall be discontinued. These curtailments shall remain in effect until 6 the Department of State determines that the government of the Philippines no longer is a
7 significant violator of human rights.

8 SECTION 2. Military activities are defined as, but not limited to, training, running of 9 military exercises, supplying military materials, and presence of military advisors. Complete
10 removal of military personnel is not required but is allowed as determined by the Department
11 of Defense. Diplomatic relations are defined as those involving embassies, consulates and 12 their personnel in communicating and collaborating between countries.

13 SECTION 3. The Department of Defense will coordinate the reduction of military
14 activities. The Department of State will coordinate the reduction of diplomatic relations

15 SECTION 4. This legislation will take effect immediately upon passage.

16 SECTION 5. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.
