Event Rules

Public Forum Debate will follow regular UDCA and NSDA rules, with teams of two debaters discussing the pros and cons of the March NSDA topic. The round will consist of four separate 4 minute speeches, followed by four additional 2 minute speeches, with a three minute cross-examination after the 2nd, 4th, and 6th speeches. Competitors are judged by their use of evidence, analysis, and overall persuasion.

Lincoln Douglas Debate will follow regular UDCA and NSDA rules, with one debater on each team discussing the pros and cons of the March NSDA topic. The round will consist of five separate speeches (6 min., 7 min., 4 min., 6 min., 3 min.) interspersed by a three minute cross-examination after the 1st and 2nd speeches. Competitors are judged by their analysis of the arguments within a moral framework and their overall persuasion.

SpAr, will follow normal UDCA and NSDA rules. Students are paired off by the judge and flip a coin to choose the topic and decide who will speak for or against the subject. Students are then allowed 1 minute of preparation, followed by a 2 minute affirmative speech, a 2 minute negative speech, three minutes of cross-examination, and 1 one minute summary for each of the students.

Student Congress will follow UDCA rules of the day, with students using the recommended bills from the UDCA website. In Congress students play the part of elected legislators debating proposed bills.

Combined Extemp. is a 7 minute speech about a current event. Before arriving at the assigned room, students are given 30 minutes of prep time, and perform one at a time before the judge.

Oratory is a 7-10 minute memorized speech written by the student.

Impromptu allows a student 7 minutes to prepare and deliver a speech, with the judge assigning topics at the start of the 7 minute period.

Combined Interpretation will follow NSDA rules, with participants delivering a 7-10 minute Dramatic Interpretation, Humorous Interpretation, or Program of Oral Interpretation. All interpretations must include a brief introduction giving the title, author and an analysis of the relevance or meaning of the selection. Scripts may be used for Program of Oral Interpretation. A thirty second grace period shall be allowed.
