

A Bill to Cap Prescription Drug Prices

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

- 1 SECTION 1. Prescription drug prices shall be capped at 125% of the international
2 average price, with pharmaceutical companies required to disclose pricing
3 methodologies for all FDA-approved medications publicly.
- 4 SECTION 2. The Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) is at this 6 moment
5 authorized and directed to:
 - 6 A. Oversee compliance with this Act.
 - 7 B. Establish a Prescription Price Oversight Board to review and 8 recommend adjustments for life-saving medications.
 - 9 C. Enforce penalties, including fines, for violations of the price cap
10 provisions.
- 11 SECTION 3. Pharmaceutical companies may apply for temporary exemptions for 12 breakthrough medications, contingent on demonstrable evidence of 13 substantial research and development costs.
- 14 SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect on January 1, 2027.
- 15 SECTION 5. All laws or parts of laws in conflict with this act are null and void.

A Bill to Rehabilitate the Public Criminal Defense System

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

- 1 SECTION 1. Public defenders shall no longer be allowed to work contemporaneously on 2 more than 30 felony cases, or no more than 65 misdemeanor cases.
- 3 SECTION 2. In the event that a public defender is taking a hybrid of felony and 4 misdemeanor cases contemporaneously, the public defender shall be
5 limited to 45 cases in total, while taking on less than 20 felony cases.
- 6 SECTION 3. The Department of Justice (DOJ) shall oversee the implementation and 7 enforcement of this bill.
 - 8 A. The DOJ shall create a committee that will oversee the allocation of 9 funds to states to aid with the hiring of more public defenders, and 10 retention of public defenders.
 - 11 B. 2 billion dollars shall be allotted to this committee for the sake of hiring 12 more public defenders.
 - 13 C. 1 billion dollars shall be allocated to this committee for the sake of 14 retaining public defenders, through increased wages.
 - 15 D. Further funds may be allocated at the next Congressional budgetary 16 meeting.
- 17 SECTION 4. This legislation will take effect on FY27. All laws in conflict with this 18 legislation are hereby declared null and void.
- 19 SECTION 5. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

A Bill to Remove Troops from South Korea

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

- 1 SECTION 1. The United States will withdraw all of its remaining military personnel from
2 South Korea effective immediately. Military support will still be available for
3 South Korean use, if needed.
- 4 SECTION 2. Military support shall be defined as military aid and US military operations
5 in conjunction with South Korean forces.
- 6 SECTION 3. The Department of Justice (DOJ) shall oversee the implementation and 7 enforcement of this bill.
- 8 A. The US Department of State will authorize distribution of military aid if 9 needed.
- 10 B. The US Department of State will conduct yearly audits to ensure proper 11 use of military aid, if distributed.
- 12 C. US military operations shall not be offensive, except in the case of 13 aggression from South Korean adversaries such as North Korea, China,
14 and Russia.
- 15 SECTION 4. This legislation will take effect in FY 2026. All laws in conflict with this 16 legislation are hereby declared null and void.

A Resolution to Set Sail for Safer Seas

- 1 WHEREAS, The U.S. has not ratified the United Nations Convention on the Law of the 2 Sea (or, the Law of the Sea Treaty), remaining a minority in the 3 international community; and
- 4 WHEREAS, The U.S. has a duty to uphold environmental justice in areas like seabed
5 mining and biodiversity protection policies; and
- 6 WHEREAS, The U.S. and the rest of the international community remain under
7 constant territorial threat given the rise of the People’s Republic of China’s 8 international sea disputes; and
- 9 WHEREAS, Ratifying the Law of the Sea Treaty would help uphold these American 10 interests in the face of maritime law; now, therefore, be it
- 11 RESOLVED, That the Congress here assembled endorse the immediate ratification of 12 the Law of the Sea Treaty.

The Antarctic Scientific Expedition Protocol

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

1 SECTION 1. The United States shall withdraw from the Antarctic Treaty System, and will
2 subsequently begin negotiations to establish the Antarctic Scientific
3 Expedition Association. The association will consist of a coalition between
4 the Commonwealth of Canada, the United Kingdom, the French Republic,
5 and Japan for the purpose of advancing new technologies and conducting
6 research on the Antarctic Plateau. Upon formal request, private
7 corporations and entities based in any member country may be considered
8 to receive access to the association's facilities for the testing of new 9 technologies.

10 SECTION 2. New technologies shall be defined as any and all experimental products
11 related to potential climate crisis solutions or advancements in confidential
12 military machinery, with the exception of weaponry, that requires testing in 13 Antarctic conditions. Research shall be defined as projects involving general
14 Antarctic geo-engineering for study critical to combating the climate crisis.

15 SECTION 3. If negotiations succeed, the United States Antarctic Program in conjunction 16 with the Department of State shall be in charge of overseeing the 17 implementation of this legislation.

18 A) A $2 billion budget will be set for this project, which will be replenished
19 annually.

20 B) The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers will be allocated an extra $500 million
21 for the design, development and construction of a new research station
22 and airfield reserved solely for the purposes of the Antarctic Scientific 23 Expedition Association.

24 SECTION 4. This legislation will take effect on January 1st, 2026.

25 SECTION 5. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.
