Dear High School Forensics Colleague:

The California State University, Fullerton Forensics squad invite you to attend our two day, full opportunity extravaganza – the 5th Annual BRUSCHKE INVITATIONAL! This event will take place Saturday, April 25 and Sunday, April 26, 2015. All debate competition takes place on Saturday and Sunday. Individual Events and Student Congress competition takes place on Sunday. We continue to offer three divisions (middle school, novice and open) of policy/team, L-D debate, public forum and two divisions of parliamentary debate. We also offer individual events, most in three divisions, which includes three divisions of Congress.

We will be using the on-line entry system available at https:// bruschkeinvitational.tabroom.com. Food will be available for purchase just across the way at our College Park eatery location that features the “Which Wich,” “The Flame Broiler,” and “The Habit” during the weekend so that your students, coaches, staff, family, and friends will have food available to them for purchase without having to stray too far our tournament. We will also offer a limited amount of refreshments. Please check out our tournament website for any additional information and updates at csufdebate.com

TOURNAMENT RULES AND ENTRY GUIDELINES

ELIGIBILITY: A novice is a first year competitor, honestly appraised by her or his coach as a beginner. A student who has never competed in debate, but has competed in individual events, may be entered in novice debate and open individual events. (Please note that any student, who has competed more than a year in any of the debate events, should not be entered as a novice in a different debate event). Similarly, a student may be entered in open debate and novice individual events if s/he has experience in the former, but not the latter. In individual events, a student's assigned division must remain consistent across patterns. Students with pre-high school debate experience (i.e., middle school), may enter either the Novice or Open divisions, at the best judgment of their coaches. All students are eligible for open division, at the discretion of her/his coach. Maverick debaters will only be permitted under extreme circumstances and must be approved by the tournament director – hybrids should be clearly designated as such. Individual event pieces may not have been used the prior competitive year.

Middle School We are offering middle school divisions for all debate and some speech events. Eligibility for the middle school divisions are students between fifth to eighth grades. Each division will have the appropriate number of elimination rounds and speaker awards (Except LD has no speaker awards). We strongly encourage all middle school students to enter the middle school division if one exists for the event. If a middle school division does not attract enough entries for an independent division, they will be collapsed into the high school novice. If this happens coaches will be notified on April 19th. Middle School debate will follow the same schedule as novice.

ENTRY LIMITS (see exceptions below): A school may enter as many or as few students as a school chooses. Competitor entries that do not clearly designate either Novice or Open division will automatically be placed in the Open division. Though we have no entry limits for any school, we are more limited on the number of rooms than in the past. We will accommodate as many teams as possible, but we may need to limit entry. We will provide updates regarding entries closer to the tournament date.

Debate (Team Policy, Lincoln-Douglas (LD), Parliamentary (Parli), and Public Forum (PoFo) Debate offered)*.

- Should any debater or team advance to elimination rounds on Saturday, they may only miss one round of Individual Events competition per pattern and receive an “averaged score” that would be an average of the two remaining scores for IE rounds 2 and 3. Missing more than 1 round of IE competition per pattern due to debate advancement will result in forfeiture of IE competition and the tournament will gladly reimburse the entry costs. This is to eliminate any unfair advantage, bias or challenge that may result from having to average too many rounds of placement.) We hope that this will allow a more inviting competition environment that is accommodating and fair.
- PLEASE NOTE THAT WE DO NOT BREAK BRACKETS AT THE TOURNAMENT. (This means that the teams will be assigned elimination debates based on their seeded placement in the tournament’s preliminary rounds regardless of whether the teams are from the same school. If two teams from the school are scheduled to debate, we recommend that a coach determine which team will move on to the next elimination round and notify the tournament’s tabulation staff).

Individual Events/ Congress: No entry limits per school with the following exceptions:

- CONFLICT PATTERNS: Students can enter ONE event in each pattern
- NO DOUBLE ENTRIES ARE ALLOWED.
- Pattern A: congress, extemporaneous, informative, dramatic interpretation, duo interpretation, oratorical interpretation
- Pattern B: impromptu, persuasive, humorous interpretation, thematic interpretation, original prose and poetry

RULES FOR TECHNOLOGY AND EVIDENCE USE:

Students are permitted to use computers in rounds in order to flow speeches, prepare speeches or access pre-prepared evidence files. Students may have a live Internet connection only for the purpose of accessing files on Dropbox, Cloud, or a similar system for electronic storage. Students may not access, cut, or site new evidence and sources found from the Internet during the round. If a student violates this policy, the tabulation room should be immediately notified.

Parliamentary (Parli) debate

The intent of Parliamentary Debate is to encourage an extemporaneous or impromptu argumentation. Reference to “outside materials” should be limited; instead, students should rely on general knowledge, common sense, and application of logic and analysis. Nevertheless, the use of “outside materials” is allowed within the following parameters:

- 1) No prepared materials may be brought into the debate round for the debater’s use.
- 2) Debaters are not permitted to read published material in the speeches of the debate to support their argument claims.
- 3) During the debate, students may consult notes prepared only during the preparation period.
- 4) Debaters may take and use notes during the debate.

Students may access computers and the internet during parli prep but not during the round.

If special circumstances exist that require students to use a computer or technology, please contact tournament staff at csufdebate@gmail.com NO LATER THAN APRIL 20, 2015. Special accommodations and arrangements cannot be made during registration or at the tournament.

Extemporaneous Speaking

Preparation for speeches must occur in prep room. Computers equipped with removable wireless cards must have the cards removed before the beginning of any round of competition. It is the responsibility of the contestant to disengage the equipment. Computers with built-in wireless capability may be used only if the wireless capability is disabled. It is the responsibility of the contestant to disable the equipment. Computers or other electronic devices may not be used to receive information from any source (coaches or assistants included) inside or outside of the room in which the competition occurs. Internet access, use of email, instant messaging, or other means of receiving information from sources inside or outside of the competition room are prohibited.

Smart Phone Policy

Students may only use phones in debate rounds for the timing of their speeches. Accessing the internet, searching for research, and consulting coaches via phone call or texts in-round are strictly prohibited.

PATTERN A EVENTS:

STUDENT CONGRESS (PATTERN A) Congress legislation will be posted on tabroom.com April 1st: Student Congress will follow a modified version of Parliamentary procedure based on NFL and CHSSA rules. All interpretations of procedure made by the chair of each session are considered final. Sessions will last 80-90 minutes. Students will present 3 minute speeches of proponency or opponency, followed by one minute of cross-examination. The time period should allow most, if not all students, to speak. Due to the dynamic nature of this event, we cannot guarantee that each student will have an opportunity to speak. Priority slips will be used to determine speaking order and priority. One set of priority slips is issued per competitor for the 3 preliminary rounds. Lost or misplaced priority slips will not be replaced!

In addition, we will be offering a Presiding Officer (PO) contest. Competitors will enter EITHER Student Congress OR the PO contest, not both. Presiding Officers will conduct proceedings in rounds (in the event of more PO contestants than houses, they will share a house and split the round time between them). After the final preliminary round, Congress participants will rank order the PO contestants, whom they witnessed, with the highest ranks moving on to subsequent elimination rounds. PO Competitors must have sufficient knowledge of congress round and parliamentary proceeding; therefore the PO contest is Varsity only – no novice entrants will be accepted. Note that the presence of a PO competitor counts toward the school's requirement for bringing a PO.

All schools that have Congress entries are REQUIRED to submit AT LEAST one person to serve as a Presiding Officer. Judges must be at least two years out of competition and should have some Congress experience OR should read the P.O. information provided at the tournament.

EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEAKING (PATTERN A): The general topic area will be national and international affairs for the preceding 90 days. Each speaker will draw three topics 30 minutes before s/he is to speak and select one for the topic of the speech. Preparation must be completed without the aid of coaches or other contestants, though the use of magazines, newspapers, or other published research resources is permitted. Notes are allowed but not encouraged in open division. Notes are permitted in novice division. There is a 7 minute maximum speech time.

INFORMATIVE SPEAKING (PATTERN A): Any appropriate subject may be used, but the primary purpose of the speech must be to inform, explain, demonstrate, or impart knowledge about an idea, concept, process, or procedure. Visual aids may be used insofar as they contribute to the overall goal of the speech. No costumes may be worn, but items of dress necessary to the presentation may be added during the speech. All informative speeches must be the original work of the student and must have been prepared during the current school year. Speeches used in previous years will be disqualified. A typewritten or clearly handwritten manuscript of the speech must be available on request from the Tournament Director. No notes or manuscripts are allowed in open division. Notes may be used in novice division. There is a 10 minute maximum.

DRAMATIC INTERPRETATION (PATTERN A): Selections may be prose, poetry, drama, or screenplays of a serious nature. All selections must consist of published material. The contestant may not have used the selections in tournaments prior to the current school year. Although gestures and pantomimes are not barred, they should be used with restraint, as this is not a contest in acting. There is a 10 minute maximum.

DUO INTERPRETATION (PATTERN A): There will be no novice/middle school division for this event – all entries will be in the open division. This event is a cutting from a play, humorous or serious, involving the portrayal of two (or more) characters presented by two individuals. The material may be drawn from stage, screen, or radio. This is not an acting event; thus, no costumes, props, lighting, etc. are to be used. Use of scripts is optional. Contestants should be evaluated on their interpretation and not on whether scripts are used. Maximum time limit is ten (10) minutes, including the introduction.

ORATORICAL INTERPRETATION (PATTERN A): There will be no novice/middle school division for this event – all entries will be in the open division. The event requires presentation of a published speech that was actually delivered in a public forum. This speech event encourages students to understand the relationship of an oration to the times that inspired it. Students must interpret the oration with a whole new voice to a whole new audience. It is the only interpretive event that allows you to use the internet as a source for selection so long as the web source is accessible from a basic internet search. The piece must have an introduction that includes the name of the author, the title of the oration, if any, the name of the source where the oration was published, and the place and date of the original delivery. No more than 150 words can be added, including the introduction and any transitions. The editing and/or delivery must not change the author's intent. The speech should be memorized. Presentation cannot go over 10 minutes long. While there is no minimum time, speeches are usually not shorter than 5 or 6 minutes.

PATTERN B EVENTS:

IMPROMPTU SPEAKING (PATTERN B): Topics are varied from round to round and can include philosophical quotations, fortune cookies, postcards, physical objects, etc. Each speaker will draw 3 topics and choose one as the subject matter of the speech. The speaker has 7 minutes maximum to divide between preparation and speaking time as s/he chooses (2 minutes preparation followed by a 5 minute speech is considered standard). Students are permitted to use one blank note card in order to make speaking notes during prep time and to use those notes during the presentation of the speech.

PERSUASIVE SPEAKING (PATTERN B): Any appropriate subject matter may be used, but the primary purpose of the speech should be to alter or change beliefs, attitudes, or behavior. All persuasive speeches must be the original work of the student and must have been prepared during the current school year. Speeches used in previous years will be disqualified. No more than 200 words of quoted material are allowed. A typewritten or clearly handwritten manuscript of the speech must be available on request from the Tournament Director. No notes or manuscripts are allowed in open division. Notes may be used in novice division. There is a 10 minute maximum.

HUMOROUS INTERPRETATION (PATTERN B): There will be no novice/middle school division for this event – all entries will be in the open division. Selections must be prose, poetry, drama, or screenplays of a humorous, but not slapstick, nature. All selections must consist of published material. The contestant may not have used the selections in tournaments prior to the current school year. Although gestures and pantomimes are not barred, they should be restricted, as this is not a contest in acting. There is a 10 minute maximum.

THEMATIC INTERPRETATION (PATTERN B): There will be no novice/middle school division for this event – all entries will be in the open division due to a history of entry numbers insufficient for two divisions. The contestant is to present a program of 3 or more selections from different works based on a theme of the contestant's own choosing, utilizing an original introduction and transitions. All selections must consist of published material and shall be at least 150 words in length. The contestant may not have used the selections in tournaments prior to this school year. The manuscript is to be interpreted; this is not a contest in acting. There is a 10 minute time limit.

ORIGINAL PROSE AND POETRY (PATTERN B): There will be no novice/middle school division for this event – all entries will be in the open division due to a history of entry numbers insufficient for two divisions. The contestant is to present his or her original material, which may consist of prose, poetry or a combination of both. The contestant may not have used the material in tournaments prior to the current school year. There is a 10 minute time limit.

- Under no circumstances are judges allowed to pass their ballots to someone else without permission of the judging table. We will impose nuisance fees for repeat offenders of this policy. $20 per round will be charged to schools with judge no-shows during the tournament. Repeated violations will result in withholding the Judge Deposit (see section below for more information).

ENTRY FEES/JUDGE DEPOSITS:

JUDGE SECURITY DEPOSIT of $100.00 is required for EACH SCHOOL to ensure that judging commitments will be met. Judging security deposits made in the form of a separate check solely for this purpose will be returned. This fee, COLLECTED AT REGISTRATION, helps to ensure that each school will provide ample judging to help cover their commitment in the tournament. This judging deposit will be refunded at ballot pick-up provided that the school has met their judging requirements.

Please note: schools that are already paying for ALL UNCOVERED SLOTS are NOT required to provide a security deposit at registration.

These fees will be collected prior to awards, and a school's awards will not be released until the fees are paid. HELP US KEEP CSUF RESPECTED, A SAFE PLACE & CLEAN!

At the previous tournaments held in October and last April, many students, faculty, staff, friends and family members from your schools helped us keep our campus and rooms clean and respected our property. Unfortunately, there were also a few reckless students who posed challenges to our campus. During one previous tournament, high school/middle school students were identified for making unnecessary noise, walking around on floors that were not reserved for the event, and attempting to open locked doors (including personal offices) To address such problems, our tournament staff and campus safety officers will continue to patrol for unruly behavior. We know that the majority of your students are following tournament rules and conducting professional behavior, however, the inappropriate actions of a few students could jeopardize our ability to host future speech and debate tournaments and events.

As such, participation in our tournament requires the following guidelines:

- All students and guests must respect our campus policies, showing respect to other teams, coaches, or judges, and conducting themselves in a professional manner.
- We expect that students will keep the noise in the halls to a minimum and clean up after themselves in rounds. We also expect that students will only use the rooms and floors marked by our signs, as those are the rooms and floors we are assigned for the event.
- Additionally, students who are caught littering, re-arranging name plates, compromising bulletin boards, or engaging in otherwise inappropriate behavior may receive a one-way escort by our campus security and will not be allowed to return for the remainder of the competition.
- Coaches, please continue to monitor your students at tournaments and inform our staff if student participants and campus guests are engaging in inappropriate behavior.
- All schools should provide parent chaperones or coaches who are required to accompany students and stay on campus during the entirety of the underage students' participation in the event.

We work hard to uphold a great tradition that many of our prior Forensics coaches helped us to establish many years ago. Help us keep this going by making sure that our campus is "ready for action" for Monday morning. Please help us out to continue this great event.

 ALL participating judges will be asked to sign a professional conduct agreement at the time of registration.

SMOKE FREE CAMPUS

As of August 1st 2013, the CSUF campus is completely smoke free. Please inform your coaches, judges and parents that smoking on any part of the CSUF campus is forbidden. This website will provide more information on the smoke free policy including a map of designated smoke free areas (it's the entire campus): <http://smoke-free.fullerton.edu/>

Please note that "Smoking" is defined as inhaling, exhaling, burning, or carrying a lighted cigarette, cigar, pipe or other lighted smoking product, including electronic cigarettes. "Visitors" include university volunteers, contractors and vendors. Those who repeatedly disregard the smoke free policy will be asked to leave the tournament.
