Paying for the Tournament

1 .Please pay in a timely fashion.

Jim Hanson will send your payment person and you the invoice as soon as possible (usually on Wednesday, the week of the tournament).

Payment should be made BEFORE the tournament begins. We are still owed nearly $450 from last year. If your school process for payment can't do that—please email Jim Hanson to confirm your payment is in progress.

2. You will be given the option to pay with credit card or with check.

If by credit card, you pay here: Pay for the Tournament Here

If by check—make it to Seattle University (preferably include “for Debate” somewhere on the check).

Send the check to Jim Hanson
 Debate—Communication Department
 Seattle University
 901 12th Ave
 Seattle WA 98122

REMINDER: LOOK FOR EMAIL FROM JIM HANSON FOR FEES-INVOICE.
Do NOT use the fees stated on tabroom.com

3. Fees will be assessed on Tuesday, January 20 at 9:00pm including judge fees.

Any and all drops made after this point will still be charged.

Judges added after this deadline will not reduce your fees—you must input your judges before this deadline.

4. Please contact us about your drops ASAP before the start of the tournament.

Drops are the main reason tournaments get off to a slow start. Everyone benefits by communicating drops. It is easiest to make changes online at tabroom.com, until Thursday January 22 at 8:00pm. After this point, please email any drops or changes.

--FOR LATE ADDS/DROPS/CHANGES: Contact Jim Hanson at hansonj@seattleu.edu

--DO NOT CALL SEATTLE U, Jim Hanson for registration adds, drops, etc. Jim will NOT get these messages. You MUST email Jim with changes/questions/etc.
