A Resolution to Rejoin and Strengthen the JCPOA to Prevent Nuclear Proliferation

- 1 WHEREAS, Iran’s nuclear program has significantly expanded since the United States withdrew from 2 the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action (JCPOA) in 2018; and
- 3 WHEREAS, The agreement’s absence increases the risk of Iran acquiring nuclear weapons, which could 4 threaten global and regional security; and
- 5 WHEREAS, The lack of a strong agreement has led to increased uranium enrichment levels, the use of 6 advanced centrifuges, and the heightened risk of nuclear weapon development, which has 7 escalated regional and global tensions; and
- 8 WHEREAS, Restoring and strengthening the JCPOA with stronger provisions could help prevent nuclear 9 missile development; now, therefore, be it
- 10 RESOLVED, That the Congress here assembled calls for the United States to rejoin the JCPOA with 11 provisions to extend nuclear restrictions to ensure long-term compliance, expand 12 verification mechanisms (such as on-site inspections, constant monitoring of nuclear sites, 13 and access to suspected undeclared facilities by the International Atomic Energy Agency), 14 address regional security concerns by limiting the development and testing of missiles 15 capable of delivering nuclear warheads; and, be it
- 16 FURTHER RESOLVED, That Congress encourages collaboration with other allied nations to negotiate 17 additional agreements to curtail ballistic missile developments and support of proxy 18 groups.

A Resolution to Exchange Drugs for Jobs

WHEREAS, The price of medicine in the United States has skyrocketed, while accessibility has declined, in recent years; and

WHEREAS, The number of available jobs in India has significantly decreased, leading to high unemployment rates across the country and forcing older generations with previously established employment to carry the burden of the Indian economy; and

WHEREAS, The United States is in dire need of cheaper medicine while India is in dire need of new employment opportunities; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Congress here assembled shall direct the Secretary of State to enter into an agreement with the Indian government removing all controls on the export of medicaments and incentivizing cooperation and transparency with American Pharmaceutical companies; and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, Should the Indian government enter into such an agreement, that the Congress shall reallocate 50 billion dollars from the budget of the Department of Defense to be distributed as tax refunds for corporations that outsource jobs to India.
