A Bill to Restore Democracy

1. To secure the Federal voting rights of persons when released from incarceration.
2. Whereas, The right to vote is the most basic constitutive act of citizenship. Regaining the
3. right to vote reintegrates individuals with criminal convictions into free society, helping
4. to enhance public safety, and
5. Whereas, Article I, section 4, of the Constitution grants Congress ultimate supervisory
6. power over Federal elections, an authority which has repeatedly been upheld by the 7. United States Supreme Court, and
8. Whereas, Basic constitutional principles of fairness and equal protection require an equal
9. opportunity for citizens of the United States to vote in Federal elections. The right to
10. vote may not be abridged or denied by the United States or by any State on account of 11. race, color, gender, or previous condition of servitude, and
12. Whereas, The 13th, 14th, 15th, 19th, 24th, and 26th Amendments to the Constitution
13. empower Congress to enact measures to protect the right to vote in Federal elections.
14. THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:
15. Section 1: The right of an individual who is a citizen of the United States to vote in any
16. election for Federal office shall not be denied or abridged because that individual has
17. been convicted of a criminal offense unless such individual is serving a felony sentence
18. in a correctional institution or facility at the time of the election.
19. Section 2: The Department of Justice shall oversee the implementation of this statute.
20. The Attorney General may, in a civil action, obtain such declaratory or injunctive relief
21. as is necessary to remedy any violation of this Act.
22. Section 3: This Statute shall take effect with any and all Federal elections held after
23. January 1st, 2026.
