2 one day prior attacked and destroyed a Venezuelan vessel in international waters, 3 murdering all 11 people onboard; and

4 WHEREAS This attack happened without any clear evidence of the specious claims that the 5 Trump administration has made to justify it; and

6 WHEREAS Even if those claims were proven to be accurate, this action remains highly 7 questionable under international law and sets a dangerous precedent for how the 8 United States and other nations interact with one another, particularly given that 9 Secretary of State Marco Rubio has indicated that the United States intends to 10 continue to undertake attacks of this sort in the future; and

11 WHEREAS Actions such as these could very well boil over into military conflict if not promptly 12 and properly addressed through diplomatic means; now, therefore be it

13 RESOLVED by the Congress here assembled that the International Court of Justice (ICJ) is called 14 upon to initiate proceedings involving the United States and Venezuela to examine 15 this incident, mediate any disputes, and ensure that justice is served; and be it

17 investigate the actions of President Trump, Secretary of Defense/War Pete Hegseth, 18 and other relevant figures to determine whether any charges of war crimes or other
