

Extemporaneous Speaking Topics

Instructions: Of the following three topics, choose one. You have 30 minutes to prep the topic, and you do not need to record the prep time. After prepping, record your entire speech in one take. Reading your quote to the judge before beginning is best practice. You may time yourself or get time signals from another individual. You have a maximum of 7 minutes to speak with a 30 second grace period.

Does Congress remain an effective check on executive overreach?

Is TikTok becoming state-controlled media through selective political censorship?

Have surveillance tools become excessive in the United States?