The ADR (American Drilling Reform) Act

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

- 1   SECTION 1.   The United States will hereby begin phasing out oil drilling operations in 2                   order to facilitate a green transition.
- 3   SECTION 2.   Application for Permit to Drill (APD): A permit overseen by the Bureau of 4                   Land Management which grants firms permission to drill on a given parcel
5                   of land.
6                   APD Maximum: The maximum amount of APDs that the BLM is permitted
7                   to issue in a given financial year.
8                   GHG Protocol: An internationally recognized standard for quantifying the 9                   carbon footprint of firms.
- 10 SECTION 3.   The Bureau of Land Management will be responsible for implementation.
- 11                   A. The BLM will no longer offer extensions on preexisting APDs. Any 12                   company seeking an extension on their APD must apply for a new 13                   permit.
- 14                   B. The APD maximum will be set to 6,000 in FY 2027. In every subsequent 15                   fiscal year, the APD maximum shall decrease by 100, until the APD
16                   maximum reaches 1,000, at which point the APD maximum will remain
17                   constant.
- 18                   C. Firms will be required to submit their GHG protocol with their APD
19                   application; based on this metric, firms with lower GHG emissions will 20                   be prioritized by the BLM for APD grants.
- 21                   a. Any company found to be falsifying GHG protocols will be 22                   denied APDs for a period of no less than 3 years.
- 23 SECTION 4.   This legislation will take effect on October 1st, 2026. All laws in conflict 24                   with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.
