

A Bill to Ban Sports Betting

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED:

2 SECTION 1. All sports betting is hereby prohibited anywhere within the United States and its
3 territories. This includes online betting on any devices located domestically.

4 SECTION 2. Sports betting shall include any monetary wager with a payout based on any element of a
5 sporting event. This most commonly refers to an event's final score or overall outcome, but other far
6 more minute elements may be bet on as well and would equally be prohibited under this legislation.

7 SECTION 3. Any establishment or website that is found to have permitted sports betting on its
8 premises/webpace shall be fined $10,000 per infraction. Should any individual establishment or website
9 accrue more than ten (10) violations in a period of twelve (12) months or fewer, it shall be stripped of 10 any and all operational licensing for a period of no less than three (3) years. Individuals engaging in 11 sports betting shall not be punished.

12 SECTION 4. This legislation shall be overseen by the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) with the 13 support of the Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI) for enforcement purposes.

14 SECTION 5. This legislation shall take effect immediately upon passage.

15 SECTION 6. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

A Bill to Reinstate the Fairness Doctrine

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED:

SECTION 1. The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) is hereby ordered to reinstate the Fairness Doctrine. That is, all holders of broadcast licenses are henceforth required to regularly devote airtime to controversial issues and to ensure that contrasting viewpoints on these issues are given reasonably fair and equal representation.

SECTION 2. This legislation shall be overseen by the FCC, which shall specifically be tasked with setting and enforcing standards of fair broadcasting.

SECTION 3. This legislation shall take effect thirty (30) days following passage.

SECTION 4. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

A Bill to Make Federal Jury Service Voluntary

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED:

2 SECTION 1. Henceforth, federal juries shall be filled by volunteers only.

3 SECTION 2. District courts may still contact citizens to entreat them to serve as jurors, but those who
4 do not want to serve may simply ignore these solicitations. The federal judiciary is encouraged to 5 increase incentives for jury service if they find it necessary to do so.

6 SECTION 3. States and territories are encouraged to enact similar legislation as soon as is practicable.

7 SECTION 4. This legislation shall take effect immediately upon passage.

8 SECTION 5. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

A Resolution to Amend the Constitution to Enfranchise the Incarcerated

RESOLVED, That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states within seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress:

ARTICLE —

SECTION 1. The right of those who are incarcerated to vote shall not be infringed at any point leading up to, during, or after their sentence, regardless of the details or scope of their crime or punishment.

SECTION 2. It is the affirmative duty of states and territories to ensure that the incarcerated face no undue barriers impeding them in the free exercise of this right.

SECTION 3. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

A Bill for Font Approachability and Accessibility

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED:

2 SECTION 1. All federal documentation, webpages, and signage shall henceforth be presented in Comic
3 Sans MS font with a minimum size of 14-point (excluding footnotes, endnotes, and other subsidiary 4 text).

5 SECTION 2. All Executive departments must adhere to this legislation and are required to seek and
6 secure Congressional approval for any exceptions.

7 SECTION 3. All federal webpages must be updated to adhere to this legislation within thirty (30) days
8 of passage. This legislation does not require replacement of text that has already been printed or 9 engraved, but shall apply henceforth to replacements and anything new.

10 SECTION 4. States and territories are encouraged to enact similar legislation as soon as is practicable.

11 SECTION 5. This legislation shall take effect immediately upon passage.

12 SECTION 6. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

A Bill to Declare War on Venezuela

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED:

2 SECTION 1. To protect the health and wellbeing of the citizens of the United States and its territories
3 and to bring about regime change that will prevent further support of terrorism and drug trafficking in 4 the Western Hemisphere, Congress hereby declares a state of war to exist between the United States of 5 America and the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela.

6 SECTION 2. Accordingly, Congress authorizes the use of military force by the President, who is
7 invested with his full wartime powers that victory may be achieved against Venezuela for the United
8 States as soon as possible.

9 SECTION 3. The Department of State is called upon to leverage support from our allies in this conflict.

10 SECTION 4. This legislation shall take effect immediately upon passage.

11 SECTION 5. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.
