

Limited Prep Prompts

If there are any questions about rules or time limits, please consult the KHSSL Handbook. All videos are due by Thursday February 19th at 8pm.

Broadcasting

None-Students will do their own script, per Round 2 in the KHSSL Handbook.

Extemporaneous Speaking

Only film the speaking time. You may film seated or standing. Choose between the five following questions:

1. What steps could the United States take to reset the US-India economic relationship?
2. What's next for the Iran-US relationship considering recent agreements?
3. If Greenland were to be acquired by the United States, what benefits or drawbacks could come as a result for the US?
4. What do the United States airstrikes communicate to the rest of the world?
5. What should European leaders consider after talks during the Munich Security Conference?

Improvisational Duo

Film the prep time and performance. The recording MUST be filmed split screen for fairness and safety. You may choose to perform the scene either humorous or serious. Choose between the two following prompts:

1. Two friends prepare for an important event
2. A parent and child discover something new

Impromptu Speaking

Film the entire 7 minutes (prep and speaking time). You may film seated or standing. Choose between the three following quotations:

“You define your own life. Don’t let other people write your script.” ~Oprah Winfrey

“One day your life will flash before your eyes. Make sure it’s worth watching.” ~Gerard Way

“If you don’t like the road you’re walking, start paving another one.” ~Dolly Parton
