How do I get on the internet?

network: StMguest

password: Lions2021

Is there food?

Yes, free food for everyone in the Great Hall. Coaches Lounge with additional snacks in Nearburg 114

Friday Breakfast 9-10:00, Lunch 11:30-1:30,

Saturday Breakfast 9-10:00, Lunch 11:30-1:30,

Snacks at random intervals

How do I contact the tabroom?

If you have issues during the tournament please email the relevant event via gmail:

hotlddebate@gmail.com

hotcxdebate@gmail.com

hotwsddebate@gmail.com

cx works for ncx, hoe down and vcx

ld works for vld and ld hoe down

If email just won't do and you need to speak to a human, the tabroom is in H112 (Hoffman).

Do we really get 10 minutes of prep in CX?

Yes, CX time limits are 8-5-3 with 10 minutes prep.

My debate is online. Where should I go to judge it?

Our campus has a lot of small areas that are pretty good to hang out in, especially in Centennial and Science.

Best “Texas” radio stations in the area

95.3 the range

95.9 the ranch (this one is in Ft. Worth and so it will come in great when you are at the airport but the closer you get to St. Mark's the more the reception will get dicey)

There is FREE SWAG

When you come onto campus you can pick up a T-Shirt, free water bottles and a timer.

If you forgot flow paper we can give you some.

If your laptop breaks down we can loan you one.

If you forgot your speaking stand we can lend you one.

If you forgot your pens we can give you one.

(SUPPLIES LIMITED)

If you need these things or missed stuff in the morning on Friday come to H112

Tim's Top Ten Restaurants

If you came to visit me, which I guess you are ☺, these are the places I'd be likely to take you. All of the recommendations that include a note that the restaurant won a "Best of..." award are a reference to the Dallas Observer yearly poll. The Observer is Dallas's answer to the Village Voice. You will see them around town and I suggest picking one up. It's a weekly newspaper with dining and entertainment guides. You can also visit their website at:

<http://www.dallasobserver.com/> They are a great resource for what is going on in Dallas. You can go directly to their best of restaurants section here:

<http://www.dallasobserver.com/bestof/>

Another great source of information both for restaurant reviews or for information on activities in Dallas is:

<http://www.guidelive.com/>

Ok, I cheated and didn't stop at ten but there were some places that I just couldn't leave out. Don't cheat yourself - read through the whole list before picking. Café Izmir at the bottom of the list is an amazing Mediterranean restaurant.

Yahoo directions to each of the places listed below are at the bottom of this document.

$ under $10 per person

$$ $10-$20 per person

$$$ $20-$30 per person

$$$$ $30-$50 per person

$$$$$ more than $50 per person

$$ Hacienda Ranch <https://www.laharanch.com/> 17390 Preston Road, Suite 100 Dallas, Texas 75252
972-248-2424 great Tex-Mex place. My personal favorite is the chicken verde but everything is good.

$$ Lockhart BBQ <http://www.lockhartsmokehouse.com/> 400 West Davis, Dallas, TX 75208 214-944-5521 or 1026 East 15th Street Plano, TX 75074

Brisket is amazing. This place makes X amount of bbq and when it's gone, it's gone.

$$ Hard 8 BBQ <http://www.hardeightbbq.com/> 688 Freeport Pkwy, Coppell, TX 75019 (972) 471-5462, they also have a new location in the Colony, TX. Both are about the same distance from St. Mark's.

There is a bigger diversity of food than you find at Lockhart and they might run out of one or two things but will have plenty of awesome food when you go there.

$$ Love and War in Texas <http://www.loveandwarintexas.com/> 601 E. Plano Pkwy Plano 972-422-6201

For me Love and War is the quintessential Texas restaurant. If I could only take you to one place during your visit then this is where we would go. Their claim to fame is taking you on a taste tour of Texas by offering items from several different regions of Texas: the gulf coast, the hill country, etc. They have live Americana music several nights a week. This place just feels like Texas to me and I love it.

$$ Babe's Chicken Dinner House 104 North Oak Roanoke, TX (817) 491-2900, and 1006 W. Main St. Carrollton, TX (972) 245-7773

Another place that represents what good Texas food is all about. The original Babe's is located in an old farmhouse. There isn't a menu. You can either have fried chicken or chicken fried steak. No choice in sides. They just bring them out to you, as much of them as you want. Prepare yourself for a full sized meal: salad, green beans, biscuits, mashed potatoes and gravy. If you get the chicken you get half a chicken and if you get the chicken fried steak it covers a plate. Word on the street is that they have great desserts. I've never made it that far. If you are eliminated early it's worth a trip to the Babe's in Roanoke. If you don't have time for that trip or if you have a big group, some of whom aren't happy with only two choices then go to the Babe's in Carrollton. Same basic deal but more entrée choices and much closer than the Babe's in Roanoke. Either way, you will get down home cooking at fair prices.

$$ Breadwinners <http://www.breadwinnerscafe.com/> 8687 N Central Expy Dallas, TX 75225 or 3301 McKinney Ave Dallas 214-754-4940

If I could only take you to one place during your visit and it was before 11 am this is where we would go. Everything I've ever had here is awesome but if you prefer dessert to breakfast try the stuffed French toast.

$$ Snuffers <http://www.snuffers.com/> 4180A Beltline Rd Addison 972-991-8811

The place I'd take you if you wanted a great burger. They also consistently win the competition for best cheese fries in Dallas. Not a place to take the vegetarians.

$$ Café Brazil <http://www.cafebrazil.com/> 6420 N Central Expy Dallas 214-691-7791

If you were a vegetarian this is where I would take you. It has the feel of a place that vegetarians would like. I wouldn't know for sure since I don't eat vegetables. So if you are a strict vegetarian you might want to click on the web link and check out the actual menu. This place also tops the "Where to go after 10 pm" list. Diverse menu and open 24 hours. Speed of service will vary depending on how late you go but the food is consistently great. Winner of "Best Late Night Restaurant" in Dallas.

$$ Louie's 1839 N Henderson Ave Dallas (214) 826-0505

Supposedly everything on the menu in this dive bar is great. I wouldn't know. I go here for the pizza. I have a friend who used to waitress here and she says the steaks are great. Steaks in a bar, sounds dicey to me, but she swears by them. Either way it's by far my favorite pizza, EVER. This place is 21 and up so if you have students you need to get carryout.

$$ Desperado's 4818 Greenville Ave Dallas (214) 363-1850 5960 W Parker Rd Ste 210, Plano, TX 75093 (972) 468-9860

Ok, picking favorites in Dallas among Mexican food and barbeque places is likely to start fights and since gun control hasn't really caught on escalation is a real possibility. Despite this, I feel compelled to recommend Desperado's. There are tons of great Mexican places in Dallas and you can stop at about any of them and feel confident about getting a decent meal. The bad ones don't last long here. Having said that, the Desperado Taco's are really, really good. There is a new location in Plano which is a lot closer to St. Mark's but they don't have exactly the same menu. My favorite appetizer is the Mexican Shrimp Cocktail and this location doesn't offer it BUT they have the Desperado Taco's so it's still a great option.

$$ India Palace 12817 Preston Rd # 105 Dallas (972) 392-0190

$$ Café Izmir <http://www.izmirgroup.com/cafe.htm> 3711 Greenville Ave. 214-826-7788

Fabulous Middle Eastern tapas place. Great food that will make both the meat eaters, and the vegetarians happy.

Dear Debater,

Congratulations on everything you have accomplished in debate so far. The research, practice rounds and late nights of prep have built something lasting: a way of thinking, arguing and listening that will serve you long after high school. I am writing to invite you to keep building it at Emory University, as a member of the Barkley Forum for Debate, Deliberation, and Dialogue.

This spring, the Barkley Forum won the 2026 National Debate Tournament, our fourth NDT championship, with three Emory teams reaching the Sweet 16. We earned that result with a squad of about 40 debaters, and we would love for you to be part of what comes next.

Debating at Emory means joining a program that competes at the highest level of college policy debate while investing in every member of the team. Here is what you can expect:

- Travel from day one. With 10–15 partnerships regularly traveling, there are many tournament opportunities for all students, including first-years.
- Mentoring and academic support. Our coaches work with you across the whole Emory experience, in research, competition and the classroom.
- A community that stays with you. Barkley Forum alumni stay deeply engaged, and many return to work with the team as coaches.
- A chance to give back. You can teach and judge in the Atlanta Urban Debate League, which the Barkley Forum co-founded in 1985.

Whether you want to chase a national title or keep debating alongside a demanding academic path, there is a place for you on this squad.

I especially encourage you to apply for the Robert W. Woodruff Debate Scholarship, which covers full tuition, fees, and on-campus room and board, renewable for up to four years. Competitive debaters with strong academic credentials are eligible to apply. The key dates for the Class of 2031:

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What should I do if I'm interested in debating at Georgetown?

A: E-mail debategeorgetown@gmail.com to indicate your interest.

Q: Will debate help me get into Georgetown?

A: The admissions office considers a wide variety of factors in making its decisions, but a strong commitment to debate cannot hurt an applicant. We can advocate on behalf of interested debaters who reach out to us, though candidates should understand that their applications will be considered holistically.

Q: Is it possible to do other extracurriculars and debate?

A: Yes! Contrary to popular misconception, debate is absolutely compatible with other commitments. Debaters take full variety of Georgetown's wide variety of opportunities, from campus social organizations to internships on the Hill.

CAPITOL CAMPUS

Georgetown's Capitol Campus, located blocks away from the US Capitol Building, the Supreme Court, and the GU Law Center, builds upon our rich history in Washington, DC. Programs at the Capitol Campus, including majors in Public Policy and Environment & Sustainability and our semester-long Capitol Applied Learning Labs (CALL), provide an unprecedented opportunity for undergraduate students to live, work, and learn in the heart of DC.

FIRST-GENERATION STUDENT SUPPORT

The Georgetown Scholars Program (GSP) was founded in 2004 and works towards a more equitable college experience for first-generation and low-income college students. Currently, the GSP family provides programmatic support for over 650 undergraduates as they navigate through elite higher education, and aims to empower students to find their authentic voices. GSP strives to create a community for our students, both on-campus and beyond, that is a strong launching pad for the rest of their college experience. Beyond an enhanced financial aid award, GSP offers additional financial support via microgrants from the Necessity Fund, which cover unexpected costs that arise throughout a student's time on the Hilltop.

The Community Scholars Program (CSP) at Georgetown supports first-generation, low-income college students who graduated from under-resourced high schools. The program provides enhanced educational opportunities for first-generation students who have achieved the dream of higher education through personal initiative, service, and academic excellence. The Community Scholars experience begins with a five-week academic summer program prior to the students' first year at Georgetown designed to aid their transition to higher education.

Dear Prospective Debaters:

The University of Kansas has a long history of success in college debate as a top NDT/CEDA program, and we encourage anyone interested in continuing their debate career in college to consider KU as an option for developing their skills and reaching their full potential as a debater.

On average we travel to 15 invitational tournaments a year, including: Northwestern, Kentucky, University of Houston, Harvard, University of Central Oklahoma, Wake Forest, and the University of Texas at Austin to name a few. In addition, all teams are given the opportunity to attend ADA and CEDA Nationals in the spring, and those that qualify attend the NDT. We guarantee that we will travel all students to tournaments.

Kansas has seen a lot of success in recent years: NDT champions (2009, 2018), Top speaker at the NDT (2019, 2021, 2025), Finals of the NDT (2016, 2024, 2025), Semifinals of the NDT (2021, 2022), Quarters of the NDT (2021, 2023, 2024), reached finals at CEDA (2019), won the Copeland (2018, 2025), ranked 2nd in the Copeland race (2025), ranked 4th in the Copeland Race (2020, 2021), and qualifying at least one team to the NDT for 58 consecutive years. With our growing squad, we expect to see success continue in the years to come.

The Jayhawks are also a family: we support each other and work hard. I encourage you to follow us on Twitter, Instagram, and “Friend” our Facebook account: Kansas Debate, to see what we have been up to this season and get a feel for our debaters and coaches. We debate a wide variety of approaches, and no matter what your style is, you are welcome as a part of our team.

In addition to our success at debate, other distinctions our university can point to include: a top ten college newspaper, highly competitive architecture program, top ranked study abroad program in the country, and a top ten honors program. Prospective students will find 137 different possible degree programs to choose from at the University of Kansas, including: Communication Studies, Business, Journalism, Political Science, and more. KU also offers smaller classes sizes (20 or fewer students) that give students more opportunities to work one-on-one with their professors. KU has a great out-of-state tuition reduction for excellent students.

We hope you will consider KU in search of a program that suits your needs for college and debate. If you have any questions at all, please feel free to contact me: bbricker@ku.edu.

Sincerely,
Dr. Brett Bricker

A Letter to Heart of Texas Competitors

Dear Heart of Texas Competitors,

Thank you to the Heart of Texas Invitational and St. Mark's School of Texas for the opportunity to introduce the University of Kentucky Debate Team.

At Kentucky, competitive excellence and academic success go hand in hand. Our debaters pursue interests spanning accounting, African American and Africana studies, biology, business administration, Chinese, economics, education, electrical engineering, international studies, law and justice, linguistics, mathematics, philosophy, political science, public policy, and sociology. A majority of our team members are Honors students, research fellows, or engaged in undergraduate scholarship.

Our coaching model is built around individual attention. Kentucky Debate has three full-time and three part-time coaches, and every team member works directly with the coaching staff. Collectively, our coaches have won or coached teams to win every major national championship in intercollegiate policy debate, including the Copeland Award. Our staff has also received national recognition for coaching, service, and judging.

A typical Kentucky debater attends four to six tournaments each semester. This year's schedule includes Northwestern, the Kentucky Round Robin, the JW Patterson Debates at UK, Minnesota, Harvard, Wake Forest, Long Beach, Navy, Indiana, Texas, ADA Nationals, and the National Debate Tournament.

Kentucky has won the National Debate Tournament twice, in 1986 and 2019, and has produced six NDT Top Speakers. The program holds the third-longest active streak of receiving first-round at-large bids to the NDT. Kentucky debaters have also received the collegiate Julia Burke Award for Character and Excellence in two of the last three years.

Founded in 1872, Kentucky Debate is one of the oldest continuously operating student organizations on campus. Our newly renovated squad room provides a dedicated home for research, brainstorming, collaboration, film review, coaching meetings, team events, and tournament preparation.

Kentucky Debate offers generous merit-based debate scholarships. Prospective students should apply to UK as early as possible and before the December 1 Early Action deadline for optimal access to both university and debate team academic and competitive scholarship opportunities. To tell us about your debate background, learn more about debate scholarships, and begin a conversation with our staff, please complete the interest form through the Kentucky Debate prospective student portal.

I would like to thank Tim Mahoney and Jason Peterson for this opportunity and wish good luck to all the 2026 St. Mark's School of Texas Heart of Texas Invitational participants.

The University of Michigan consistently ranks among the very best universities in the country and world. According to U.S. News & World Report, Michigan is the twentieth best University in the United States and one of the three top three public schools in the America. Michigan also hosts numerous top ten graduate programs, including their renowned law, business, and public policy schools. There are approximately 35,000 undergraduate students at Michigan. Students from all 50 states and more than 100 foreign countries contribute to a culturally and ethnically diverse campus community.

The University of Michigan Intercollegiate Debating Team was one of the nation's first intercollegiate forensics teams, founded in 1903. For over a hundred years, the Debate Team has excelled in teaching critical thinking skills and persuasive communication techniques.

The University of Michigan Debate Team first reached the elimination rounds of the National Debate Tournament in 1971. Michigan has reached the semifinals of the NDT ten times and finals eight times, including winning the tournament for the first time in April of 2024. Michigan's had the top speaker at the NDT once and second speaker three times. Michigan has won the Copeland Award three times, given to the top first round at-large team in the country, including most recently in 2022 and 2023. Michigan has received 41 first round at-large bids to the NDT and 64 teams have reached the elimination rounds. This year our top team recently won the University of Kentucky Tournament and was runner-up at the season-opening tournament at Northwestern University.

The Michigan Debate Team prides itself on the consistent academic accomplishments of all its debaters. This success is reflected by their matriculation to the nation's leading law and graduate programs, including Harvard, Yale, Stanford, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Chicago, Texas, Georgetown, Columbia, NYU, Berkeley, Emory, Virginia, etc. Michigan Debate has produced numerous lawyers, doctors, professors, entrepreneurs, teachers, etc.

I am running the policy tabroom at the tournament this weekend and should be available to discuss the University of Michigan or Michigan Debate if you are interested. I also plan to attend our tournament, The Glenbrooks, Blake, MBA, Pace Academy Round Robin/Emory University, California Round Robin, NDCA, and the Tournament of Champions.

When should I apply to Michigan?

Michigan is already accepting applications. Michigan is using the Common Application again this year and you will just need to complete a few additional specific essays. Further information can be found here- <http://admissions.umich.edu/apply/>

I strongly encourage you to apply by November 1st to Michigan. Early Action is completely non-binding and if you apply by November 1, you are guaranteed a decision by late January. If you don't apply by November 1, you may not receive a decision until as late as April. Applying early gives you the best chance to get accepted, multiple chances to get accepted, and the best chance to receive merit/need-based scholarships and gain admittance to the UM Honors Program. Further information about applying can be found here- <http://admissions.umich.edu/apply/freshmen-applicants/requirements-deadlines>. For a second year in a row, Michigan now offers an Early Decision (ED) binding plan. Students who participate in the Early Decision plan will apply by Nov. 1 and can expect a decision notification by the end of December.

Does Debate help you with the Admissions process at Michigan?

The UM Admissions Office wants to attract the top students from around the country and world to Ann Arbor and debate helps facilitate this goal. Debate alone won't get you accepted to Michigan if your grades and scores are well outside of Michigan's normal range. If they are within Michigan's range and your Admissions decision is competitive, debate excellence is the type of thing that could help push your application across the finish line. Unfortunately, I likely cannot be of any help if you don't apply by November 1st.

Am I eligible for any merit-based or debate scholarships at Michigan?

If you are accepted and complete your FAFSA, the University will send you an official financial aid package. The Shipman Scholars program provides merit scholarships for talented prospective undergraduate students admitted to the University of Michigan. Prospective students of high academic achievement who have been admitted as first year undergraduates will be nominated for consideration through the Admissions process. Academic achievement will be determined based on a set standard of high school grade point average and SAT/ACT test scores. The award value of the scholarship at a maximum is $120,000. 16 Shipman Scholarships will be awarded annually. Further information can be found here- <https://shipmansociety.wordpress.com/about-us/>

Starting in 2011, UM Debate alums have awarded merit scholarships to incoming debaters. Any student that gets accepted to Michigan is considered for these and between 1-3 scholarships are awarded each year. Final decisions are usually made in April shortly after the Tournament of Champions.

The 2026-2027 Michigan Debate Team Coaching Staff:

Aaron Kall (Lee H. Hess Director of Debate), Kurt Fifelski (Assistant Director of Debate), Kevin Hirn (Assistant Coach and Program Manager), Val McIntosh (Assistant Coach and Program Events and Logistics Specialist), Graham Revare (Assistant Coach and Program Manager), Dustin Meyers-Levy (Assistant Coach), Joseph Weideman (Assistant Coach), Gabe Jankovsky (Assistant Coach), Jiyeon Park (Assistant Coach), Alex Brown (Assistant Coach), and Rafael Pierry (Assistant Coach).

The 2026-2027 Michigan Debate Team:

There are over three dozen members of this year's Michigan Debate Team. By college standards, we are considered a large or midsize program. Several members of the team are from the state of Michigan, but countries such as Taiwan and states such as California, Kansas, Illinois, Ohio, Georgia, New Jersey, Texas, etc. are represented as well. The Michigan Debate Team coaches, researches, and runs a balanced combination of policy and critical arguments, as argument flexibility is essential to competitive success and education in college debate these days.

The 2026-2027 Michigan Debate Team Travel Schedule:

In the first semester, we will attend Northwestern University, Missouri State University, University of Kentucky, University of Minnesota, Harvard University, and Wake Forest. In the second semester, we will attend Long Beach, Dartmouth College, Indiana University, the Naval Academy, the University of Texas, American Debate Association Nationals, and The National Debate Tournament.

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT DALLAS

Academic excellence • Research • Innovation • Community

Dear Students,

The University of Texas at Dallas (UT Dallas) is a leading public research university located in Richardson, Texas, in the heart of the Dallas–Fort Worth metropolitan area. Known for its commitment to academic excellence, innovation, and discovery, UT Dallas has grown into a university that prepares students to make meaningful contributions to their professions, communities, and the world.

With more than 30,000 students and over 160 academic programs across seven schools, UT Dallas offers a diverse learning environment where students can explore their interests, develop new skills, and pursue ambitious goals. The university is particularly recognized for its strengths in science, technology, engineering, business, and other fields that address the challenges of an increasingly interconnected world.

One of UT Dallas's most notable achievements is its academic standing. In the 2026 U.S. News & World Report rankings, the university ranked third among public universities in Texas and 54th among public universities nationwide. These distinctions reflect the university's continued growth and commitment to providing students with a high-quality education. The university also maintains a strong focus on research, encouraging faculty and students to explore new ideas, develop innovative solutions, and contribute to advancements that benefit society.

Beyond the classroom, UT Dallas provides students with opportunities to participate in more than 400 student organizations, engage in campus activities, develop leadership skills, and build lasting relationships. Its location in the Dallas–Fort Worth area also connects students with a dynamic professional environment, offering access to internships, industry partnerships, and career opportunities across a wide range of fields.

UT Dallas is also home to a strong tradition of achievement beyond academics. The university's chess program has earned national recognition, its athletics programs compete in NCAA Division II, and its growing research and entrepreneurship initiatives demonstrate a commitment to turning ideas into practical results. The university's mascot, Temoc, represents the distinctive spirit and identity of the Comet community.

At its core, UT Dallas is more than a place to earn a degree. It is a community that encourages curiosity, critical thinking, collaboration, and personal growth. By bringing together students and faculty with diverse backgrounds, experiences, and perspectives, the university creates opportunities for individuals to challenge assumptions, exchange ideas, and prepare for the responsibilities of leadership.

As UT Dallas continues to expand its academic programs, research capabilities, and community partnerships, it remains focused on preparing students for a rapidly changing world. Its commitment to innovation, educational excellence, and meaningful impact makes it an important institution in North Texas and beyond.

The University of Texas at Dallas represents a place where ambition meets opportunity, ideas become innovation, and today's students prepare to shape tomorrow's world.

Sincerely,

Erik Mathis Assistant Director of Debate
The UT Dallas Debate Team

UTD Debate

Academic excellence • Research • Innovation • Community

Dear Students,

The University of Texas at Dallas Debate Team is proud to be part of a university community that values academic excellence, critical thinking, and intellectual curiosity. We invite students to discover the opportunities that competitive debate offers, both inside and outside the classroom.

Debate is more than the ability to argue a position. It requires careful research, analytical thinking, effective communication, and the willingness to consider different perspectives. Through preparation, practice, and competition, debaters learn to develop persuasive arguments, evaluate complex issues, and communicate their ideas with confidence.

The UT Dallas Debate Team has a strong tradition of competitive achievement, including consistent participation in the National Debate Tournament. Beyond competition, the program provides students with opportunities to strengthen their academic skills, build lasting relationships, and develop abilities that can benefit them throughout their educational and professional careers.

Over the past four seasons, the UTD program has grown into one of the most competitive policy debate programs in the country. In 2023–24 season UTD reached the octafinals of CEDA Nationals. In 2024–25 that success spread across the roster. UTD reached the octafinals at the University of Kentucky. UTD advanced to the quarterfinals and also octafinals of CEDA nationals, the first time two UTD teams reached the Sweet 16 at a national championship. The 2025–26 season was the strongest in program history. UTD qualified a school-record three teams to the National Debate Tournament, and UTD PR advanced to the double-octafinals. UTD DD reached the quarterfinals of CEDA Nationals for a second straight year, and UTD HK advanced to the octafinals of ADA Nationals. That momentum has carried into 2026–27, with UTD making it to the octafinals at Northwestern and the quarterfinals at Kentucky. Our team has grown and achieved more with each season, and we are very excited to continue building a strong program at UTD.

We encourage interested undergraduate students to learn more about the team and explore the possibility of joining us. You do not have to view debate as simply winning an argument; it is an opportunity to learn, grow, collaborate, and challenge yourself in a supportive academic environment.

We look forward to connecting with students who are eager to exchange ideas, sharpen their skills, and represent UT Dallas through competitive debate.

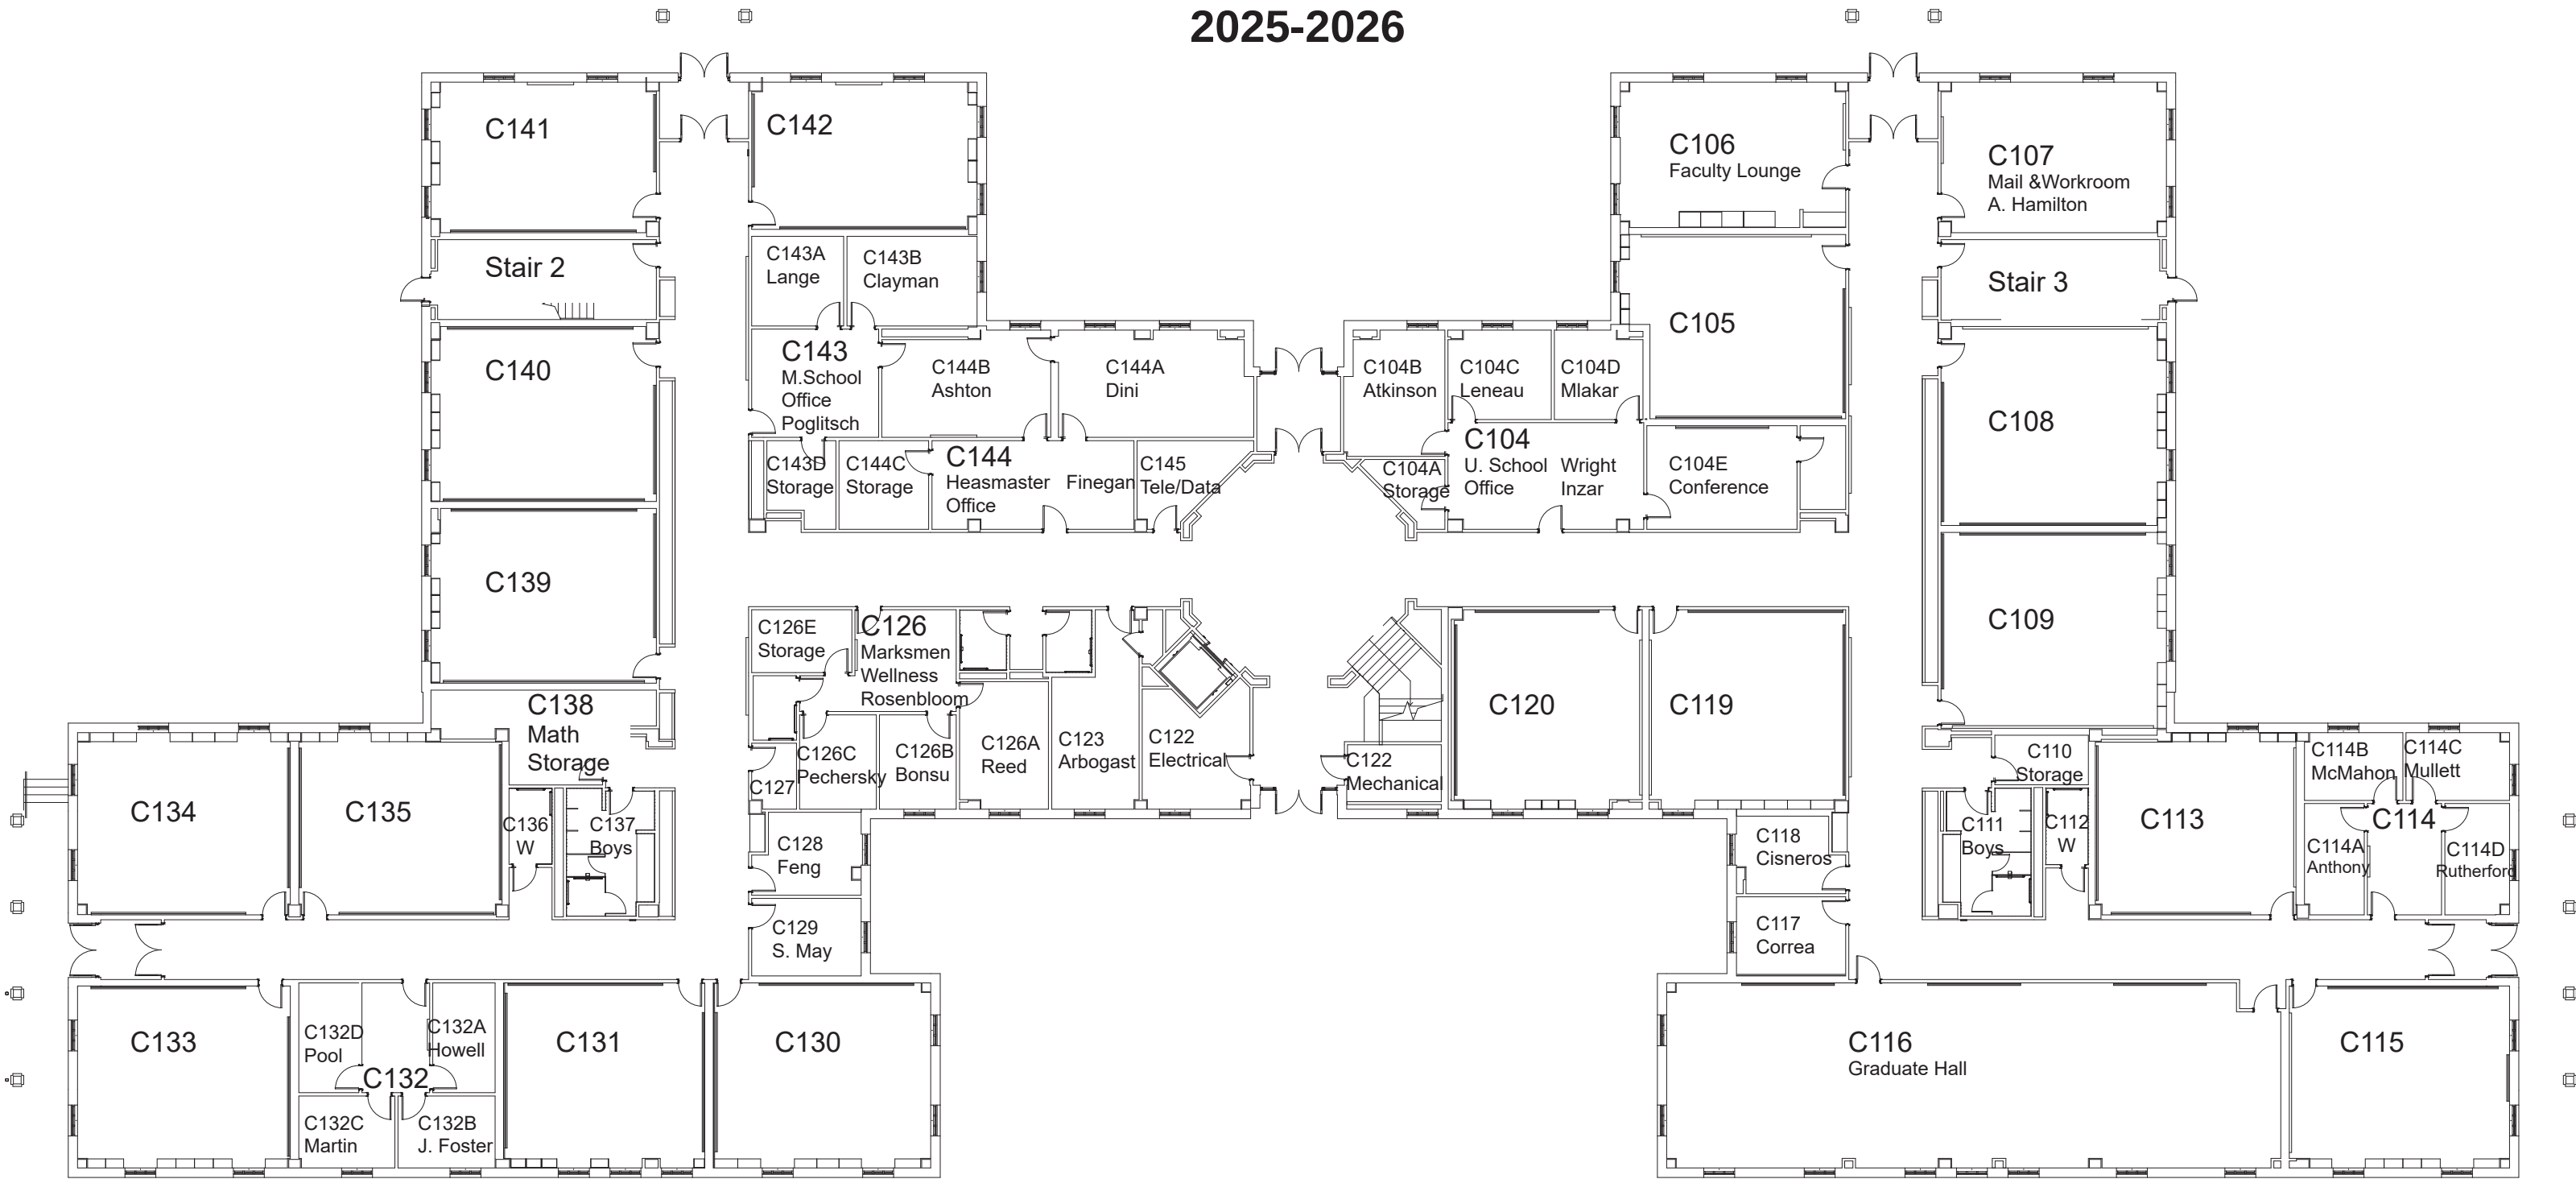

Thank you for your interest in the UT Dallas Debate Team. We hope you will join us in continuing this tradition of intellectual growth, collaboration, and competitive excellence.

Sincerely,

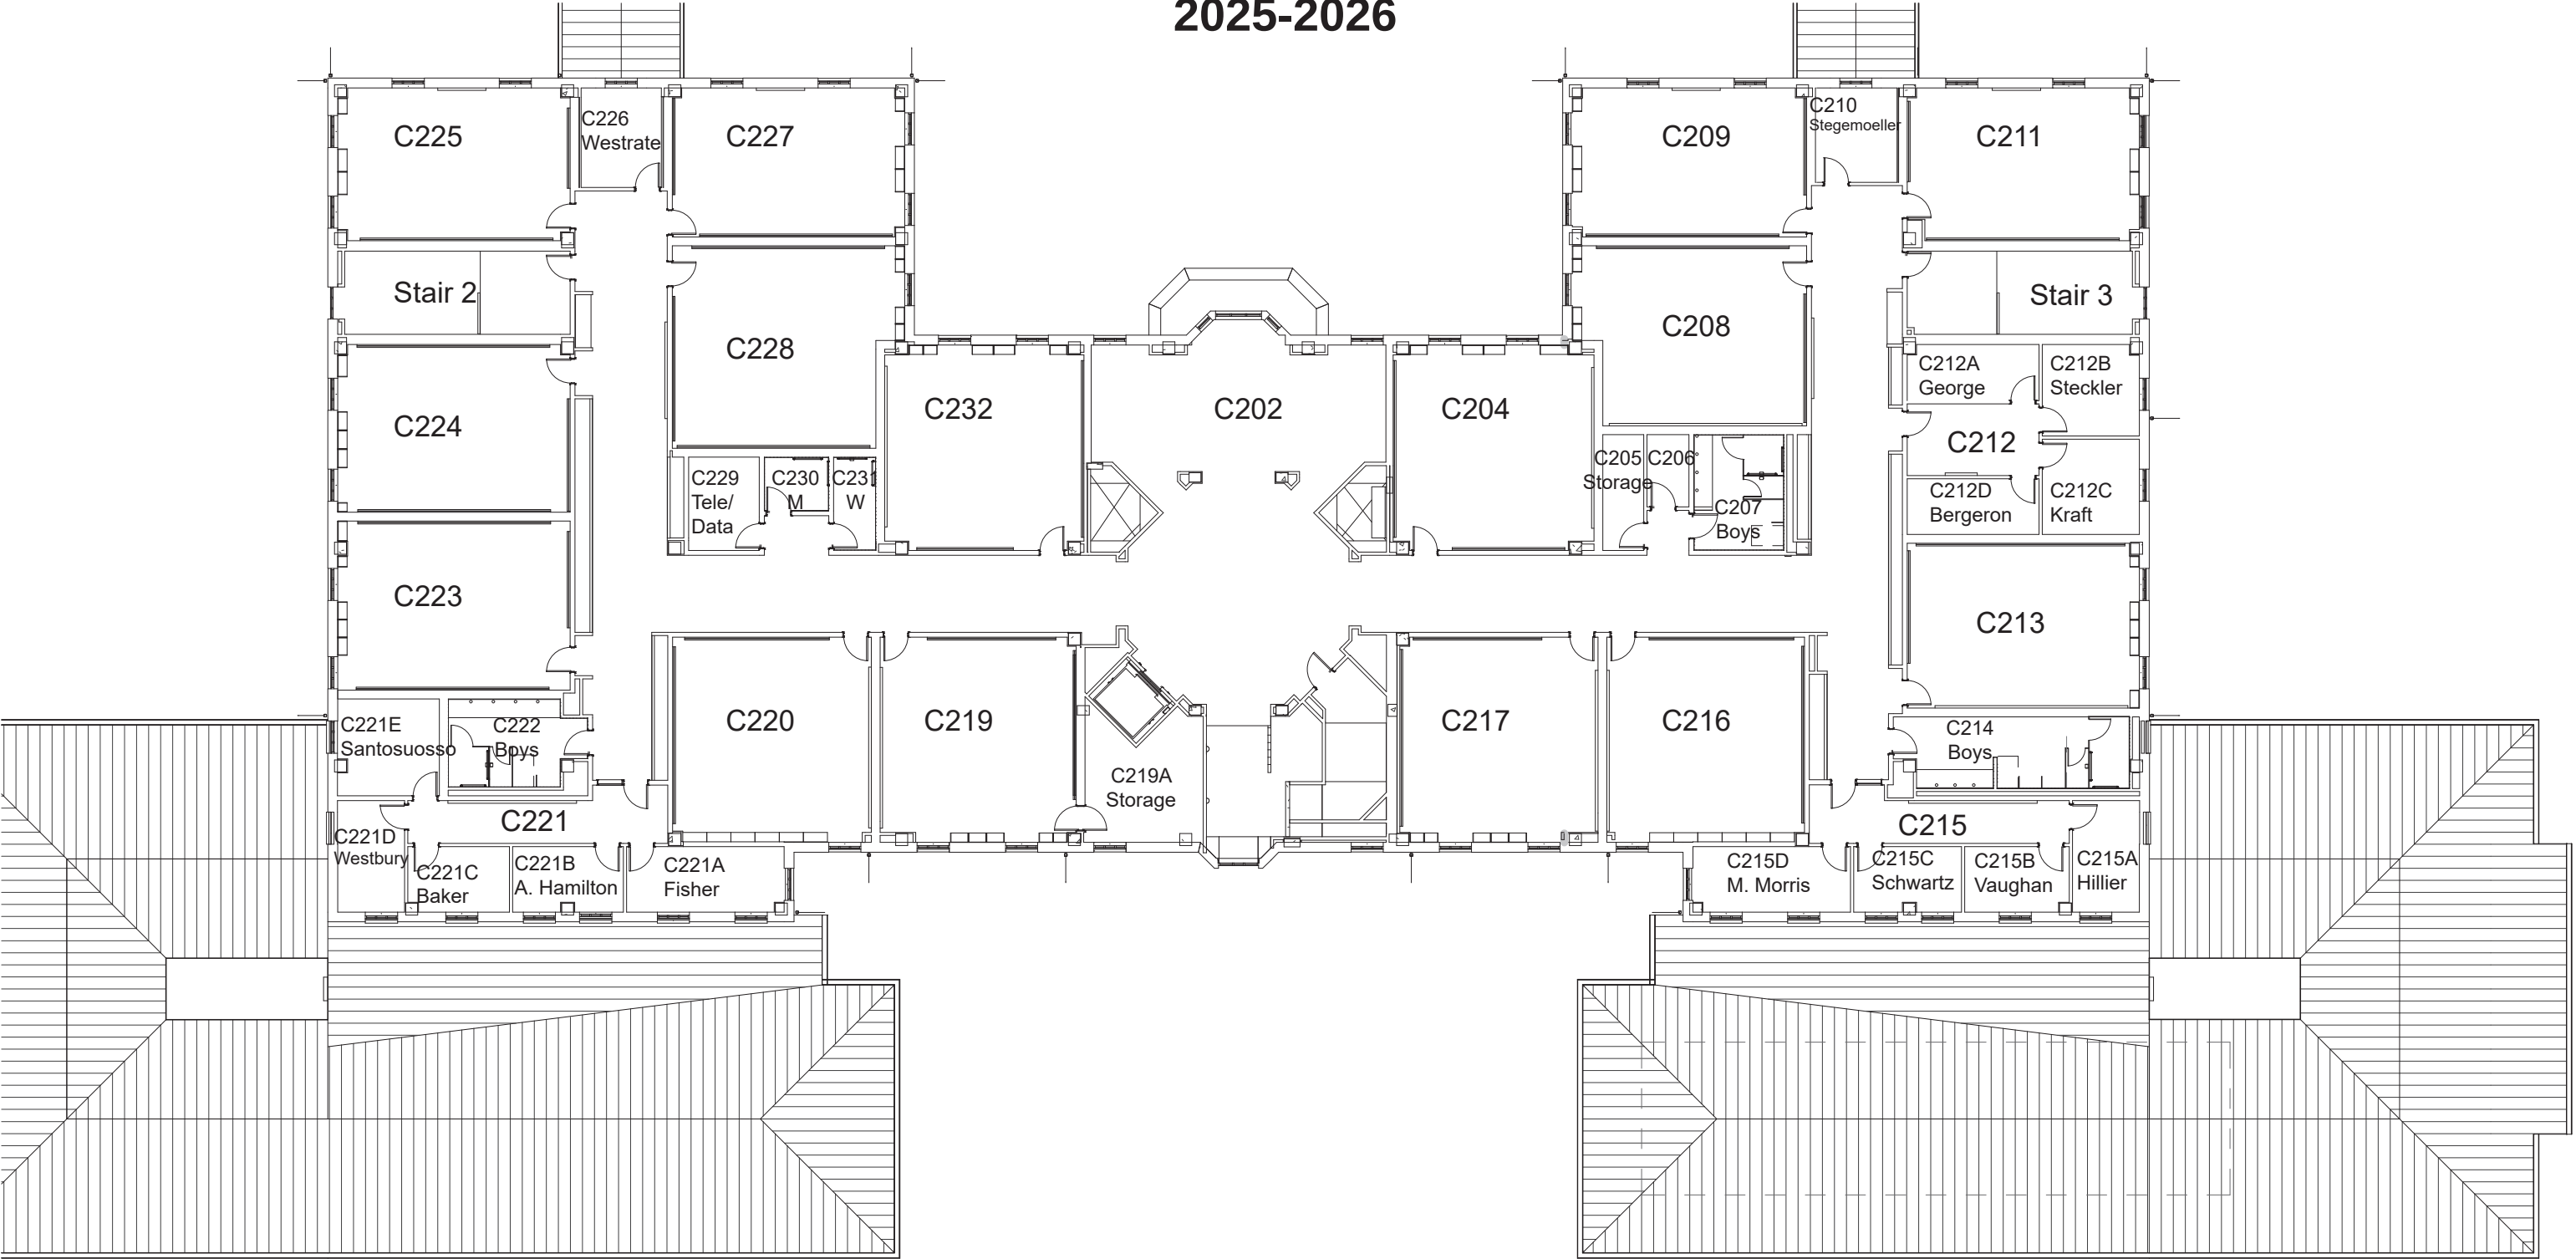

Erik Mathis Assistant Director of Debate
