The Old Ain't Gold Amendment

1 RESOLVED, By two-thirds of the Congress here assembled, that the following article is 2 proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which 3 shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when 4 ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states within 5 seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress:

ARTICLE --

7 SECTION 1: No justice shall serve on the Supreme Court for a term 8 exceeding eighteen years. The appointment of justices shall 9 be structured so that each president is entitled to nominate
10 two Supreme Court justices during their four-year term.

11 SECTION 2: The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by 12 appropriate legislation.

The Future is Flesh Act

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

- 1 SECTION 1. The United States shall prohibit all companies within the U.S. from 2 replacing members of their workforce with automation.
- 3 SECTION 2. “Automation” shall be defined as the replacement of human employees 4 with any form of automation, including, but not limited to, artificial 5 intelligence and robotic systems. This legislation does not prohibit 6 companies from automating vacant positions.
- 7 SECTION 3. The Department of Labor and the Department of Justice shall be tasked 8 with the enforcement of this legislation.
- 9 A. If companies violate this legislation, they will be fined 5% of their 10 annual revenue for each infraction.
- 11 B. If a company automates a position, it may reassign the affected 12 employee to another role within the company, so long as the 13 employee's pay and benefits remain unchanged.
- 14 SECTION 4. This legislation will take effect on January 1st, 2027. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.
