A Bill to Require the Pentagon to Pass an Audit

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

1   SECTION 1.   Any component or agency within the Pentagon that fails to achieve a clean
2                   audit opinion on its financial statements will receive a 10% budget 3                   reduction for every year the agency does not pass the audit after the 4                   passage of this legislation. The withheld funds will be returned directly to 5                   the federal treasury.

7   SECTION 2.   A “clean audit opinion” will be determined by independent public
8                   accounting firms hired by the Department of Defense Office of Inspector 9                   General in accordance with current procedure, overseen by the 10                  Government Accountability Office.

11

A Resolution to Streamline School Resource Officer Jurisdiction for Educational Success

- 1 WHEREAS, School Resource Officers (SROs) play an important role in maintaining school 2 safety; and
- 3 WHEREAS, SROs may become involved in minor student interactions and disciplinary 4 matters that do not involve a threat to school safety, such as dress code
5 violations, non-violent insubordination, use of profanity, and minor property 6 damage; and
- 7 WHEREAS, Routine, non-violent discipline can be handled by school administrators and 8 counselors; and
- 9 WHEREAS, Prohibiting law enforcement involvement in minor disciplinary matters can 10 strengthen the relationship between students and educators; now, therefore, be it
- RESOLVED, That the Congress here assembled supports prohibiting SRO involvement in routine, non-violent school code of conduct violations; and, be it
- FURTHER RESOLVED, That schools should use qualified educational personnel to address routine disciplinary matters while allowing SROs to focus on serious threats.

A Resolution to Federally Declare Education a Fundamental Right

WHEREAS, Educational funding remains severely inequitable across the nation, with only eighteen states dedicating at least 10% more funding to high-poverty districts than low-poverty districts, and

WHEREAS, The Supreme Court has ruled that the Constitution does not declare education a fundamental right, and

WHEREAS, Federal efforts to increase state funding have failed, and the inherent differences in property tax rates are causing local funding shortages; and

WHEREAS, This lack of access to quality education is sustaining patterns of socioeconomic inequality; and

WHEREAS, Current targeted federal grants such as Title 1 have created limited improvement; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Congress here assembled make the following recommendation that the federal government declare education a fundamental right and increase federal contributions and involvement in education.

Introduced for Congressional Debate by Mount Vernon High School.

A Resolution Affirming that the United States Will Not Oppose Taiwanese Self-Determination

WHEREAS, The Taiwan Relations Act of 1979 treats any effort to determine the future of Taiwan by other than peaceful means as a threat to the peace and security of the Western Pacific; and

WHEREAS, In 2000, President Clinton stated that cross-Strait differences should be resolved peacefully and with the assent of the people of Taiwan; and

WHEREAS, During his September 2026 state visit to Washington, Chinese President Xi Jinping urged the United States to oppose Taiwan independence, a stronger position than the American policy of not supporting it; and

WHEREAS, In an August 2026 survey commissioned by Taiwan's Mainland Affairs Council, 83.9 percent of respondents said Taiwan's future should be decided by its 23 million people; and

WHEREAS, American officials, including those in the intelligence community, judge that pressure from the People's Republic of China is the main cause of rising tension in the Taiwan Strait; and

WHEREAS, Adopting Beijing's preferred language would tell the people of Taiwan that their future can be bargained over by Washington and Beijing; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the United States will not oppose any decision on Taiwan's future that the people of Taiwan reach peacefully and through democratic means; and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Congress calls on the President to reject any request by the People's Republic of China that the United States declare its opposition to Taiwan independence.

A Bill to Modernize and Extend AGOA to Increase Trade Between the United States and Africa

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

SECTION 1. The African Growth and Opportunity Act shall be extended through December 31, 2041, to provide long-term stability for trade and investment between the United States and eligible sub-Saharan African countries.

SECTION 2. For the purposes of this legislation, “AGOA” shall mean the African Growth and Opportunity Act; “USTR” shall mean the Office of the United States Trade Representative; and “trade capacity” shall mean the ability of businesses and countries to produce, transport, and export goods that meet United States market requirements.

SECTION 3. Congress shall appropriate $250 million annually for an AGOA Trade Capacity Initiative administered by USTR in coordination with appropriate federal agencies.

A. Funds shall support small and medium-sized businesses, manufacturing and value-added production, customs modernization, compliance with United States import standards, and programs reducing barriers to two-way trade. USTR shall prioritize countries and industries that have historically underutilized AGOA preferences.

B. Beneficiary countries shall remain subject to annual review under existing AGOA requirements. When a country fails to satisfy an eligibility requirement, USTR shall provide written notice and, when appropriate, up to 180 days for corrective action before recommending termination. This period shall not be required for severe or systematic human-rights violations or threats to United States national security.

C. USTR shall report annually to Congress on AGOA utilization, United States-Africa trade, small-business participation, export diversification, and market access for United States exporters.

SECTION 4. This legislation shall take effect January 1, 2027.

SECTION 5. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.
