A Bill to Prohibit Access to the Upside Down

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

SECTION 1. The United States shall prohibit all unauthorized access to, travel into, and transportation of persons, organisms, objects, substances, or other materials from the dimension commonly known as the "Upside Down."

SECTION 2. For the purposes of this Act:

A. The "Upside Down" means the parallel dimension existing adjacent to Earth and characterized by an environment substantially hostile to human life.

B. An "Upside Down portal" means any naturally occurring or artificially created opening, gateway, rift, or other passage that permits physical movement between Earth and the Upside Down.

C. "Upside Down material" means any organism, biological matter, object, substance, artifact, or other physical material originating in or substantially altered by the Upside Down.

SECTION 3. No person shall knowingly:

A. Enter or attempt to enter the Upside Down;

B. Create, maintain, enlarge, or knowingly facilitate the creation of an Upside Down portal;

C. Transport, import, transfer, sell, distribute, or otherwise bring Upside Down material into the United States; or

D. Knowingly conceal the existence or location of an Upside Down portal from federal authorities.

SECTION 4. The Department of Homeland Security, in coordination with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and appropriate federal scientific agencies, shall enforce this Act by:

A. Identifying and securing known or suspected Upside Down portals;

B. Establishing containment procedures for Upside Down material discovered within the United States; and

C. Investigating suspected violations and preventing unauthorized access to the Upside Down.

SECTION 5. Any person who knowingly violates Section 3 shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than $100,000 and imprisonment for not more than five years, or both. If a violation results in the release of an organism or substance that poses a substantial threat to human life, the violator shall be subject to imprisonment for not more than twenty years.

SECTION 6. Nothing in this Act shall prohibit federally authorized scientific research involving the Upside Down when such research is conducted in a secure facility and pursuant to safety regulations established by the appropriate federal agencies.

SECTION 7. This Act shall take effect 180 days after enactment. All laws in conflict with this Act are hereby declared null and void.

A BILL TO PROMOTE EQUAL OPPORTUNITY IN SPORTS FOR HUMANS AND MONSTERS

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

SECTION 1. All sports organizations in the United States shall permit eligible monsters to participate in athletic programs alongside humans at all levels, including school, recreational, amateur, collegiate, and professional sports. Denying an individual the opportunity to participate solely because of their species shall be prohibited.

SECTION 2. For the purposes of this Act:

A. "Monster" means any sentient nonhuman being capable of understanding and participating in organized athletic activities.

B. "Sports organization" means any school athletic program, recreational league, governing body, or professional sports league operating in the United States.

C. "Species-based discrimination" means denying participation or membership solely because an individual is human or nonhuman.

SECTION 3. Sports organizations shall establish reasonable participation rules to promote safety and fair competition among athletes of different species. Organizations may create divisions, equipment requirements, or competition rules based on relevant differences in physical abilities, provided these rules are not used as an excuse for blanket species-based exclusion.

SECTION 4. The Department of Education shall oversee compliance in school athletic programs, while the Federal Trade Commission shall oversee compliance by professional and other private sports organizations. Organizations found to violate this Act may face fines of up to $100,000 per violation.

SECTION 5. This Act shall take effect one year after its enactment.
