Content Does the material presented enrich the audience? Is it meaningful, relevant, and consistent with the purpose of this forensic event?	S E G NI	Comments should be given for any rating other than superior. Your content was good, but did not draw out all the aspects of veterans issues. Go in-dept with your analysis, instead of staying at surface level. How are veterans being treated badly (ex. social security, medical insurance etc...) How are these issues being ignored going against societal welfare. How is this issue affecting the country? You need to expand on your impacts, and how need to be stronger. Your voice and physical delivery was fairly good. Look up more. Improve on overall effect by some more deep into the topic and structure your speech in a way that is easier to understand. [How veterans are being affected → How the government is doing nothing about them]

Avoid using too many stats because you did not have a lot of explanation. Ex. How do Trump's rising poll numbers correlate to the public's view of him?, (Why are his numbers rising). Analyze more, instead of sticking to numbers your vocal delivery was good. Your organization could have been better. Instead of stating numbers, say your point and explain its relevance. This will improve overall effectivity. Your physical delivery could have been better. Make more eye contact, do not sit down. Your lines should be better, like your points to your topic instead of being redundant with stats. Use time better with impacts

How do they relate? Avoid opinions in your speech. You explained why the killings of ISIS. Why do you think the US is not combating ISIS? Improve on your link story. Avoid redundancy, and use your time effectively. Define all terms, add some background info. What is ISIS? What are their goals? You gave examples of attacks and said they could have stopped these attacks. How and why do you think this would have prevented the attacks? How do you think the US should go about in dealing with ISIS in the future? Use your time effectively by answering these important aspects. You need to improve on the impacts. Your content was fairly good and relevant to the topic, of non-profit colleges. Be sure to define all terms that are not contextual (ex. on profit colleges). Your organization was good. The order of the points was good and easy to understand. You should improve on your links. Link every point to each other and to the topic to explain your position effectively. What are the negative impacts of "for profit" colleges on students? Improve on your impacts. Why is the point you are making important? Improve vocal clarity, and physical delivery with gestures to emphasize the importance of your points.
