Finals Legislation

A Bill to Enforce Responsible Gun Ownership

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

SECTION 1. Localities that are not covered by a law declaring “It is unlawful for an adult to leave an unsecured firearm owned or controlled by the adult in a manner that the adult knows or reasonably should know is accessible to a child” will not be eligible to receive any federal grants for education or law enforcement.

SECTION 2. (A) “Adult” is person who has attained 18 years of age
(B) “Child” is person who has not attained 18 years of age
(C) “Firearm” utilizes the definition in 18 U.S.C. 921
(D) “Secured” means in a locked safe or rendered inoperable by means of a lock or other secure gun storage or safety device and where no one other than the owner has access to the code, combination or key.

SECTION 3. The Department of Justice will monitor the compliance of states and localities and alert the relevant people in the appropriations process at the Department of State and Department of Education to prevent the dispersal of funds to ineligible localities. Localities may be covered by state, county, or local laws as long as:
(A) The law is substantively similar to Section 1
(B) Laws convey criminal liability for crimes committed by children given unlawful access to firearms with said firearms upon the responsible adult.

SECTION 4. States have 18 months from the date of enactment to comply with this law.

SECTION 5. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

A Resolution to Amend the Constitution to Ensure Succession Stability and Executive Accountability Regarding Treaties

WHEREAS, Each new President inherits stewardship of treaties previously ratified to by the United States of America in good faith in the international community; and

WHEREAS, The President must obtain advice and consent of the Senate before ratifying a treaty, so it logically follows the Senate should offer advice and consent in withdrawal from a treaty; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, By two-thirds of the Congress here assembled, that the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states within seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress:

ARTICLE --

SECTION 1. The President must obtain Advice and Consent of the Senate to withdraw from any treaty previously ratified by the United States of America.

SECTION 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.
