

REPEAT

In this game, 4 neutral players at the side. The forwards have one player with the bibs who always receives the ball. The player with the bib transfers himself from one zone to another with his marking player presses him. The ball is then passed to him and the game goes on as in the previous drill. When the ball is out, the game restarts with the player in the bib awaits the ball while others move marking and covering.