ELDERS' COMMENTS
We express our faith in worship through prayer, singing, the Lord's Supper, giving and through the proclaimed word of God. We grow in faith by hearing the word, and we show our faith by obeying the word. Worship is only one way that we live our faith. Living the word in daily life also is faith in action. Faith working through love is the acceptable formula for Christian living. (Gal.5:6) Faith without works is dead. We show our faith by our works. A lack of works shows a lack of faith. (James 2:14-26) If worship is all we do, how much faith do we really have? Jesus asked, "Why do you call me, Lord, and do not the things that I say?" As shepherds of the Tara congregation, we are glad to see those who attend the assemblies of the church, but we all need to realize that faith involves far more.

The Virtue Of Kindness

Do you want people to be kind to you with their words and actions? Do you want them to be kind to your children? Most people do. Kindness is almost a forsaken trait in our society. We see the lack of it while driving, or shopping, or working, or playing. Unkindness is the fruit of a selfish heart. If you treat a dog with kindness by petting him often and feeding him well, he will never leave you. The same usually works with husbands and wives. It also works with brethren.

One of the many words Paul used in describing love was "kind." "Love suffers long and is kind." (I Cor.13:4) And to the Ephesians he wrote, "Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor (loud quarreling) and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice. And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you." (Eph.4:31,32) Kindness and forgiveness naturally go together. However, some find both to be difficult, and such people are to be pitied. Kindness involves our hearts, our thoughts, our words and our deeds. It's like producing a beautiful garden.....

Kind hearts are the garden,
Kind thoughts are the roots,
Kind words are the blossoms,
Kind deeds are the fruits.

Relationships improve when kindness is practiced. And the practice should be daily. It must become our nature to be kind to one another. And it doesn't require that much of us. It can even be the difference between a frown and a smile - a listening ear, a few words. "Stop, look and listen" works with people, as well as with crossing railroads.

Richard
