STAND FAST IN THE FAITH!

In One Spirit

Philippians 1:27 "Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel."

Stand in the Lord

1. Build a good foundation ~ 1 Corinthians 3:11 "For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ."
2. Write His words upon your hearts.
3. Philippians 4:1 "Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved."
4. 1 Thessalonians 3:8 "For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord."

Stand with the Armor of God

Ephesians 6:13-18 "Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. 14) Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; 15) And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; 16) Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. 17) And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: 18) Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints."

~ May We All Encourage One Another ~

Cards and calls are an encouragement. Addresses are in the Members Directory. For those not members at Tara, their address is posted on the bulletin board in the foyer.

Elders' Comments

Churches sometimes suffer from the destruction of evil or mentally disturbed people of this world. We hear about it through the news media. This calls for some sort of security measures to be taken.

Tara has installed cameras on this building that show and record every area of our parking lot. While we are here, our security team monitors what the cameras show. Members and visitors are greeted, and if anything unusual or suspicious takes place they see it and can check it out, call the police or do whatever is necessary at the time. The elders and this congregation appreciate Patrick Brown, Donnell Robison, Willie Green, Michael Hollis and Randy Harp who either sit behind the front desk, or are available in the foyer to help wherever needed.

From the Pen of Richard

Having The Mind Of Christ

From a Roman prison cell, the apostle Paul wrote his “epistle of joy”, the Philippian letter. In chapter two he exhorted those Christians to esteem others as better than themselves, looking out for the interests of others, rather than their own. Then he wrote, “Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus” (cf. Philippians. 2:3-5). Jesus came to this earth and went to the cross because He was looking out for our interests. This was the only means of bringing about our redemption. Although salvation is free, it is not cheap. It required the Creator Himself to become man and submit to an agonizing death on the cross. But this was the mind of Christ, “who being in the form of God... made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross” (Philippians 2:6-8). Yes, He was looking out for our interests.

The Christian life is preeminently to be characterized by unselfish love, and the standard of that love is nothing less than the love of Christ for us, “...that you love one another as I have loved you, that you also love one another” (John 13:34) We must love as He loved. We must think as He thought. We must live as He lived. This may lead to suffering and hardship. But it is written, “For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps” (I Peter 2:21). This will lead to holiness. “But as He who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, because it is written, Be holy, for I am holy” (I Peter 1:15,16). This will lead to purity. “And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, even as He is pure” (I John 3:3).

Having the mind of Christ will get the gospel to the lost of the world. That is why He came, and that is the commission He left. Having the mind of Christ means that His will becomes our will; His thoughts become our thoughts; His way becomes our way. In position, we do have the mind of Christ (cf. I Cor. 2:16), but in practice, we still come far short. Let's all put forth a greater effort to have it and keep it.

Richard
