I Want to Be a Worker

Isaiah Bultzell

I want to be a worker for the Lord; I want to love and trust His holy word; I want to sing and pray, and be busy every day, In the vineyard of the Lord.

I want to be a worker every day; I want to lead the erring in the way, That leads to heav'n above, where all is peace and love, In the kingdom of the Lord.

I want to be a worker strong and brave; I want to trust in Jesus pow'r to save; All who will truly come shall find a happy home,
in the kingdom of the Lord.

Refrain

I will work, I will pray, In the vineyard, in the vineyard of the Lord: I will work, I will pray, I will labor every day, In the vineyard of the Lord.

Elders' Comments

We rejoice with another family who placed membership with the Tara congregation last Sunday, November 16. Robert and Karyn White, along with Martin, Joseph, Rylynn and Noah White and Marty Baker will be added to our directory, as well as address, phone numbers, emails, etc. This is a good family that we believe will be an asset to this church. We welcome them and encourage all our members to meet, greet and get to know them.

Also, a Special "Thank you" to those who came to the building to help with the Thanksgiving baskets for some of our Tara families, as well as for others in the community. Paul reminded the Ephesian elders that Jesus said "It is more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20:35). This is as true today as it was then. Tara is blessed.

PRACTICAL CHRISTIANITY HELPING THE CHURCH

We sing the song, "I Want To Be A Worker For The Lord". We read the scriptures, "...being fruitful in every good work..." (Col.1:10) and "...always abounding in the work of the Lord..." (I Cor. 15:58). But are you working for the Lord? It would be good for each of us to consider what we are doing for the church, other than our attendance, considering first whether we are faithful in doing that. Below is a list of things that most every Christian can do. Try this. As you read through the list, circle the numbers of those things you are presently doing. Also, underline what you can start doing immediately. When you get busy doing positive things to help others and to help build up the church your life will become far more rewarding. Try it!

(1) Start a card ministry. Send a personal card to the sick, shut-in, bereaved, someone who has suffered some hardship, or just needs encouragement. (2) Visit or do something personally for one of the above. (3) Use your telephone to encourage those who need it, and include absentees and those who are spiritually weak. (4) Commend someone who is growing, or doing a good job, for being a good example. (5) Reach out to new members by always speaking to them; have them in your home to get better acquainted. (6) Take food, or do a good deed, to someone who may need it. (7) Offer to assist someone who has been assigned to some duty related to the church and its work. (8) Make suggestions for improving anything that pertains to the work or worship services. (9) Participate in more church activities. (10) Come earlier, stay later, and enjoy the fellowship of other Christians. (11) Be sure to speak to visitors and encourage them to come back. (12) Pray more for the church, the leaders, and for individuals with specific needs, and tell them you are praying for them. (13) Read and study your Bible every day. (14) Become interested and supportive of any class or program that will enhance your spiritual life. (15) Organize a Bible study with a lost friend, and ask someone to teach it if you feel inadequate. (16) Let it be known that you and your car are available if anyone needs transportation. (17) Attend area gospel meetings, or other special events, to be spiritually uplifted and to encourage the churches in their work. (17) Increase your financial contribution to the Lord's work if you are not giving as you should. (18) If you see something that "somebody" needs to do, and you can do it....do it! (19) Look for the good in the church and in people, and let love cover a multitude of sins. (20) Resolve to help wherever you can, be dependable, go the second mile when needed, and be thankful that you have the health to do so. Some don't.

Richard
