EACH DAY BRINGS A CHANCE TO DO BETTER

How often we wish for another chance to make a fresh beginning,
 A chance to blot out our mistakes and change failure into winning,
 And it does not take a special time to make a brand-new start,
 It only takes the deep desire to try with all our heart ,
 To live a little better and to always be forgiving,
 And to add a little “sunshine” to the world in which we’re living,
 So never give up in despair and think that you are through,
 For there’s always a tomorrow and a chance to start a new.

Elders’ Comments

We all were saddened by the vandalism of the church building but are thankful no one has been hurt. The guilty man was caught and jailed last Monday and will not be released for six months. Hopefully, he will receive some counseling while incarcerated and when released, as some evidence of mental issues are involved. Meanwhile, we are working on hiring a professional cleaning company, replacing the windows, upgrading the security cameras and alarm system, and doing other necessary repairs. Robin Wilson, our new church secretary, has been a big help in all this, as she has devoted much time and effort to it. This was a lot to take on initially, and we appreciate her for it. Hopefully, some normality will be restored when it all comes together again. However, we must realize that our steadfast faithfulness, even in abnormal circumstances, will see us through whatever we face.

THE WISDOM OF THE WISE

The key word of Proverbs is wisdom. The book was written by Solomon whom God blessed with great wisdom when he became the king of Israel. Because he had asked God for an understanding heart to judge the people and be able to discern between good and evil, rather than riches or a long life, the Lord gave him far more than he had requested. Not only was he given a wise and understanding heart that far exceeded the wisdom of any who came before or after him, he also was blessed with great riches. (! Kings 3:5-13) The various messages of Proverbs exemplify the supernatural wisdom Solomon possessed. We call your attention to some of them.

The wise increase learning by listening. “A wise man will hear and increase learning...”(Prov. 3:5) The importance of hearing (listening) is emphasized repeatedly in scripture. Learning ceases when we do all the talking.

The wise appreciate being rebuked. “...Rebuke a wise man, and he will love you”. (Prov.9:8,9) Wise people realize they make mistakes in judgment and desire to improve. Overcoming shortcomings leads one to even greater wisdom. “...He who heeds counsel is wise” (Prov. 12:15)

The wise follow commands. “The wise in heart will receive commands...” (Prov. 10:8) He realizes that everyone must answer to someone. He learns to submit to those in authority and avoids the consequences of insubordination. “A wise son heeds his father’s instructions”. (Prov.13:1)

The wise continue growing in knowledge. “Wise people store up knowledge...” (Prov. 10:14) Successful people in any field learn all they can about their profession. They stay alert to new and better tools and methods.

The wise are soul winners. “... and he that wins souls is wise”. (Prov. 11:30) Since the soul is man’s most valuable possession, wisdom is seen when we bring salvation to the lost. Also, the wise make sure of their own salvation.

The wise are a source of wisdom. “He who walks with wise men will be wise...” (Prov. 13:20) One can keep company with wise people, or the ignorant. Either one has the power to influence those around them.

The wise shun evil things. “A wise man fears and departs from evil...” (Prov. 14:16) The longer we linger in the face of temptation the more difficult it is to resist. We must recognize evil for what it is, fear it, and depart from it.
