Being a Leader Means . .

Leading people to know God through Jesus Christ. We must teach people about Christ by going on mission trips, through Bible correspondence courses, or by having a Bible study with them in our home. Teaching is an important part of leadership.

Equipping members for spiritual service. A true leader helps other Christians grow in their confidence in teaching or participating in worship services. Sharing your knowledge and talents with others helps with your confidence and theirs also.

Assisting members to grow in love, holy living, and fellowship with the church of Christ. All members must be made to feel a part of the congregation. Even the shy are needed for the church to grow. Make all members and visitors feel that they are a part.

Declaring God in spiritual and truthful worship. We must put God before ourselves by attending all the assemblies of the church and by setting the right example for our brothers and sisters in Christ. Half-hearted to absent-minded “worship” is not worship at all.

Each member is needed as a leader for Christ! Determine today to serve the Lord fully by following the key reminders in the acronym L-E-A-D!

Lynette Sumner— The mother-in-law of Steve Pollard was released home without surgery for the stints needed, due to her health issues. She is under hospice care at home. Keep this family in your prayers.

Henrietta Jones— is experiencing colon pain and will be seeing a Gastrologist for answers. She requested prayers on her behalf.

Vera Hannah—had cataract surgery on one eye and it was successful. She's having surgery on the other eye on 10/28. She's been unable to drive at this time. Prayers for her healing and recovery.

Roslyn Curseen—will have a series of tests done the first week of November. Let's continue to keep her in our personal prayers.

Dylan Madden—requests prayers for his Dad, Lee Madden, as he's going through a lot of issues right now.

Alfred Barnes Sr—has improved and has not had any seizures. The meds are working in his favor. Continued prayers as he recovers.

Havanna Goebel, continues with pain, Ericka Lee, Havanna 's daughter, continues to deal with her cancer. Her father, Ervin Lee, also has cancer.

Elders' Comments

It is a joy to have friends, guests and visitors with us today, as we do most Sundays. Former Tara members bring special joy. Scott and Debbie Richards are in that category. We welcome them today and anytime they can work Tara into their busy schedule. Scott recently returned from a foreign mission trip, and he will use our Bible class period this morning to report on the progress of our brethren in distant fields. Hearing positive mission reports should motivate us to work harder at home in getting the gospel to the lost of our part of the world. Scott will be preaching during our first worship, followed by his mission report.

THE URGENCY OF OUR WORK

Our time on this earth is passing so rapidly. James 4:14 describes life as "a vapor that appears for a little time, and then vanishes away". Paul wrote, "The night is far spent, the day is at hand..." (Rom.13:12) Jesus realized the urgency of his work, and we are followers of Jesus. He said, "I must work the works of Him who sent me while it is day; the night is coming when no one can work". (John 9:4) What can we learn from Jesus regarding our work in the kingdom?

We learn that our work is personal. Jesus said, "I must work..." No one else can do our work for us. Everyone does his own work. Wives cannot work for their husbands, nor parents for their children. Elders are not to do the deacon's work, and the preacher is not to do the congregation's work. We all have a work to do. (1 Cor.3:13-15)

We learn that our work is imperative. Jesus said, "I must work..." Our work in the kingdom is not requested. It is required; absolutely necessary. It is not optional. It is not a matter of whether we have the time, or feel like it, or want to...it's a must! The prophet asked, "What does the Lord require of you?" (Micah 6:8) The jailor asked, "What must I do to be saved?" (Acts 16:30) We all must ask the same questions and then do what is required.

We learn that our work is defined. Jesus said, "I must work the works of Him who sent me..." Even as a child, he said, "I must be about my Father's business" (Luke 2:49) God's word defines our work. We must help the needy, support the weak, teach the lost, edify the saved, comfort the broken hearted, be an example for others, worship and serve faithfully. No one can say, "I don't know what to do". Just open your eyes and see what needs to be done, and then do it.

We learn that our work time is limited. Jesus said, "I must work the works of Him who sent me while it is day." The days and years are speedily passing away. "....knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep, for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed." (Rom.13:11) Physical limitations increase as we age, and the precious time of younger years is often wasted, emphasizing the urgency of our work while it is day.

We learn when our work will end. Jesus said, "The night is coming when no one can work". Whether it be when we die, or when the Lord returns, our work will end when night comes. It is important that we realize the urgency of our work in God's kingdom. There is so much to do, and so little time that any of us have.

"Work for the night is coming, under the sunset skies;
while their bright tents are glowing, work, for daylight flies.
Work till the last beam fadeth, fadeth to shine no more;
ork while the night is dark'ning, when man's work is o'er".
