Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

Hebrews 13:5-6

The windows have been ordered for the building. We should be seeing them installed and the finishings for them in the next 2-3 weeks. The progress has been steady but some things take time in the way the process goes. Thank you for your patience while we are diligently working to restore all the damages done.

A letter was prepared and sent to the judges regarding the situation of things, if the person who damaged our property makes the bond set for him. We requested that he be released with an ankle monitor and also requested he stay at another location, possibly a relative as he lives close to Tara, "IF" he is able to make bond. We pray he gets the mental help and rehabilitation he needs to function in society as much needed. We are hopeful that the judges will take our requests and implements this as a stipulation to his bond.

Elders' Comments

Next Sunday, September 15, we have invited more than 1600 households to our worship services via our outreach publication, HOUSE to HOUSE/HEART to HEART. Front page article is CHURCH: WHY BOTHER? The invitation is on the back page. Read it. Spend a few minutes in reading the whole paper. We need everyone at Tara to be present next Sunday to welcome our visitors from the community. Reach out to them. Be friendly. Will they come? If one person comes, what a blessing that can be. Michael and Roslyn Curseen came initially from reading this publication. Surely there are others in our community who are searching for the truth.

WINNERS AND LOSERS

Who determines the life we live, the obstacles we overcome, and the goals we reach? We do! Others may influence us for good or bad. Problems will hinder progress. But in the final analysis, I am the one individual who succeeds or fails with my life. No one else! Listen to the words of a failure. "I can't"; "I don't know how"; "I don't have the time"; "Let someone else do it"; "I'm afraid"; "It's too hard"; On and on the excuses go for losers. Now, listen to the words of a winner. "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me". (Phil.4:13) "For He himself has said, I will never leave you, nor forsake you; So we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, I will not fear; What can man do to me?" (Heb.13:5,6) "What then shall we say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?" (Rom.8:31,32)

Failures come with various names such as Saul, Balaam, Judas, Ananias, Sapphira, Demas, Diotrephes, Hymenaeus, Alexander, Haman and Cain. Winners come with various names too. Think of Gaius, Ruth, Esther, Peter, Daniel, Onesimus, Ephras, John, Cornelius, Epaphroditus, Timothy, Paul, Titus and Mark. All of these winners were criticized at times, discouraged, misunderstood, weak and sinful. However, the difference in the winners and the losers was determined by each individual. They got what they wanted.

It was through God that the winners became winners, but they personally applied themselves and were determined to be winners. The losers did it their own way, without God, and losing was inevitable for them. So it is with us. With God, we all can be winners. But we must make up our minds which we want to be.

The elders and the Tara congregation commend Dylan Madden for his recent decision to become a gospel preacher. This will require a lifetime of Bible study and faithful commitment to Christ and His church, but God's blessings will be abundant in his life. Dylan is capable of keeping such a commitment. His physical family is behind him in this decision, and his spiritual family will be encouraging and supporting him in every way we can in accomplishing his goal. Dylan has been willing to take a leadership role in our worship services in various ways, and we will continue seeing his leadership abilities increase as time passes.

Please remember to turn off your cell phone during Bible study and Worship!
