

Your All Access Pass to Successful Small Businesses

"Tara Gentile asks all of the questions I wish I could ask successful small business folks." ★★★★★ iTunes Review

THE SHOW

The mission of Profit. Power. Pursuit. is to uncover the hard truths and nitty-gritty details of running a small business by providing in-depth access to successful entrepreneurs for emerging small business owners.

Each week, we deep dive on how a particular aspect of our guest's business works and unpack their process as much as possible.

THE HOST

Tara Gentile is the creator of Quiet Power Strategy®, as well as an author, thought leader, and sought-after speaker. Her goal is to turn the small business owners of today into the economic powerhouses of tomorrow.

Her company provides the tools, training, and camaraderie needed for New Economy entrepreneurs to transform their communities, families, and themselves.

OUR GUESTS

Our guests share what's really working in their own businesses. This is not an advice podcast.

We look for small business owners who are willing to go deep and share the good, bad, and the ugly of how things work on the inside.

If you have a special process or unique approach to time management, product development, marketing, sales, or team-building, we'd love to feature you.
