

Carol Stone Piano Studio

Peskanov Piano Festival Week Classes

Each year Carol Stone Piano Studio brings Alexander Peskanov to Kingsport to provide a week of high-level musical training for local piano students. The festival this school year will be held during the week of January 9, 2017, and culminates with a concert at Mathes Hall at ETSU in Johnson City on Saturday, January 14, 2017.

This week is one of the highlights of the studio year. It provides each student with the opportunity to take a private lesson with Alexander Peskanov, a world-renowned pianist, composer and teacher. In addition students may participate in a group class, which focuses on the Piano Olympics. The cost of the private one-hour lesson is $90, and the cost of the group one-hour lesson is $40.

Thank you,
