Each Member hereby consents to the admission of such new Members which meet the Membership Qualifications.

Section 5.02 Continuing Requirement to Meet Membership Qualifications. An organization shall become or remain a Member only if the organization meets all the Membership Qualifications at the time the organization becomes a Member and continues to meet those qualifications at all times thereafter. Members shall cease to be Members if they fail at any time to meet any one of the Membership Qualifications.

Section 5.03 Membership Qualifications. The Membership Qualifications are the following:

(a) Organization Described in I.R.C. 501(c)(3). (e) Operating Standards. The Member (i) has been accredited by The Land Trust Accreditation Commission (or any successor organization providing the principal nationally recognized accreditation service to land trusts) and is a member in good standing with The Land Trust Alliance, or (ii) the Member meets each of the following criteria:

* (i) is legally organized and in good standing in a jurisdiction within the United States of America;

* (ii) has, by a formal vote of its board of directors or trustees, adopted the Land Trust Standards and Practices;

* (iii) has a complete baseline documentation report for every conservation easement;

* (v) has implemented a program for annual monitoring of its conservation easements;

* (vi) regularly monitors its fee-owned land, if it is insuring its fee properties;

* (vii) is a member in good standing with The Land Trust Alliance;

* (viii) has not been the subject of any final judgment against it for fraud, misrepresentation, criminal charges, bad faith, misleading business practices or any other similar charges;

* (ix) is not the subject of an ongoing governmental investigation or inquiry, such as an attorney general investigation, legislative hearing and the like, the subject of which is land trust complicity in misleading business practices, fraud, gross negligence or criminal misconduct;

* (x) prepares an annual budget that is reviewed and approved by its board, that is based on programs planned for the year, and that either provides for annual revenue to be greater than or equal to expenses or provides for reserves to be deliberately drawn upon;

* (xi) has general liability insurance (which need not include directors and officers liability insurance);
(xii) has and implements a written records policy and secure record-keeping system that preserves irreplaceable documents essential to defense and enforcement; and

(xiii) has, or is building, a legal defense and general stewardship reserve or other reserve that can be allocated for that portion of its legal defense and stewardship costs not covered by insurance from the LLC (unless prohibited by state statute or regulation).

The determination of whether a potential Member meets the criteria in paragraphs (i) to (xiii) above (only) shall be made by the Manager in its reasonable discretion and such discretion may include acceptance of commitments and plans for implementation.

Section 5.04  Competitive Advantage. The LLC shall not exclude any Member-applicant from membership in the LLC solely to provide for existing Members a competitive advantage over such Member-applicant.

ARTICLE VI.

Dissociation of Members

Section 6.01  General Rule. A Member shall be dissociated from the LLC upon the occurrence of any of the events specified in § 3081 of the Act.

Section 6.02  Mandatory Dissociation upon Non-Renewal, Cancellation or Termination of Member's Insurance Policy. In the event of non-effectiveness, non-renewal, cancellation or termination, for any reason whatsoever, of all current insurance policies issued by the LLC to a Member, such Member shall, immediately upon the date of such non-effectiveness, non-renewal, cancellation, or termination, automatically and without any action on the part of the Member or the LLC, be dissociated from the LLC.

Section 6.03  Mandatory Dissociation upon Revocation of Determination that the Member is an Organization Described in I.R.C. 501(c)(3). Upon the revocation of a determination by the Internal Revenue Service that the Member is an organization described in I.R.C. § 501(c)(3), such Member shall, immediately upon the announcement of such revocation in the Internal Revenue Bulletin and without any action on the part of the Member or the LLC, be dissociated from the LLC. The effective date of the dissociation shall be the effective date of such revocation.

(a)  Required Notice. Any Member which has its determination by the Internal Revenue Service that it is an organization described in I.R.C. § 501(c)(3) revoked shall immediately notify the Manager of such revocation and the effective date of such revocation, but regardless of whether or not notice is given, such Member ceases to be a Member of the LLC upon the date of the announcement of such revocation in the Internal Revenue Bulletin.
(b) Limitation of Coverage. Each policy of insurance issued through the LLC shall provide that such policy will not cover the insured with respect to events occurring on or after the date of the announcement of such revocation in the Internal Revenue Bulletin.

Section 6.04  Mandatory Dissociation upon Member Dissolution. Upon (i) the dissolution of a Member, or (ii) the occurrence of any condition or event terminating that Member’s legal existence, the Manager shall dissociate that Member.

Section 6.05  Mandatory Dissociation Under Failure to Meet Other Member Qualifications. If a Member, upon its accession to Membership, had met the operating standard qualifications of Section 5.03 through being accredited, and it at any time ceases to be accredited, it shall be eligible to remain a Member provided that it then meets the operating standards in clause (ii) of Section 5.03(e). The Manager may in its discretion from time to time (but no less than annually) require Members to re-certify their accreditation or require Members that are not accredited, to re-certify their compliance with the operating standards set forth in clause (ii) of Section 5.03(e). If a Member cannot or does not make the required re-certification, the Manager shall dissociate that Member.

Section 6.06  Member Resignation. A Member may dissociate at any time by delivering an instrument in writing of intent to dissociate to the Manager; provided, however, that upon the effective date of such resignation, such Member shall also be deemed to have cancelled or terminated its policy issued by the LLC.

Section 6.07  Effect of Dissociation. No dissociation of a Member shall result in or require the dissolution and/or winding-up of the LLC. Upon any dissociation of a Member, the dissociated Member shall be entitled to return of its capital contribution as provided in Section 7.04, but shall cease to enjoy any of the rights or entitlements of a Member. Only Members of the LLC may be insured by the LLC. Upon dissociation of a Member, the Member’s insurance shall terminate. Each policy of insurance issued by the LLC shall provide that such policy will not cover the insured for events occurring after the date of dissociation of a Member.

ARTICLE VII.

LLC Membership Interest

Section 7.01  Membership Interest. Each Member’s Membership Interest at any time shall be calculated as a percentage with the numerator equal to one (1) and the denominator equal to the total number of Members at such time. Accordingly, each Member shall at all times have a Membership Interest that is equal to each other Member’s Membership Interest. Membership Interests shall not be evidenced by a certificate of interest or any other instrument.
Section 7.02 Member Contributions.

(a) Initial Contributions. Concurrently with its accession to Membership, each Member shall make a capital contribution to the LLC of $100 cash. Each potential Member may also be required to pay a non-refundable sliding registration fee, but no portion thereof in excess of any part thereof applied to make the required $100 capital contribution shall be deemed to be a capital contribution to the LLC.

(b) No Capital Calls. No Member shall be obligated to make any subsequent capital or other contribution to the LLC.

(c) No Interest on Contributions. The Members shall earn no interest on their capital contributions.

Section 7.03 No Other Membership Interest. Persons other than land trusts meeting the Membership Qualifications may make charitable donations to the capital of the LLC, but no such person shall thereby be entitled to a Membership Interest or to participate in any Distribution.

Section 7.04 No Right of Redemption or Return of Contribution. No Member has a right to have its Membership Interest redeemed or its capital contribution returned, provided that if a Member dissociates as described in Article 6, the LLC may (subject to any required regulatory approvals by the Department) purchase the Member's Membership Interest for an agreed price equal to the dissociated Member's initial contribution of $100, without any accrued interest. In view of the prohibition on Interim Distributions, each Member hereby agrees that $100 is the fair value of its distributional interest for all purposes of the Act and this Agreement, and hereby irrevocably waives any right under the Act to commence or bring, and agrees hereby not to commence or bring, any action to otherwise determine the fair value of its distributional interest.

ARTICLE VIII.

Distributions

Section 8.01 Prohibition Against Interim Distributions. The LLC shall make no Interim Distribution to any Member, it being understood and agreed by the Members that in the event the LLC has cash or other assets in excess of its required capital, operational needs, and liabilities, the LLC shall consider increasing its investment in loss prevention and risk management for the benefit of the Members and/or consider (subject to financial prudence and all applicable regulatory requirements) retaining or covering more risk, reducing its premiums, or otherwise reinvesting in the operations of the LLC. Notwithstanding the prohibition of this Section 8.01, an insured (who is also a Member) may receive a transfer of the LLC's cash or other assets if such transfer constitutes a return or refund of premium paid, a premium discount, or payment of an insured claim.
Section 8.02  Liquidating Distributions. The LLC shall only make a Liquidating Distribution in the circumstances and on the terms set forth in Article 18.

Section 8.03  Prohibition Against Distributions to Members That Cease to Be Organizations Described in I.R.C. § 501(c)(3). The LLC shall make no Distribution of any type to any Member, or former Member, that has ceased to be an organization described in I.R.C. § 501(c)(3).

Section 8.04  Distributions—Other Rules.

(a)  Manager Control. Whether the LLC shall make any Distribution and the amount and timing of any such Distribution shall be determined by the Manager, subject to the requirements of law, regulations and this Agreement.

(b)  Distributions to All Members. The LLC shall make no Distribution to any Member unless it makes a Distribution to all Members.

(c)  Proportionality. Amounts distributed to each Member in any Distribution shall be in proportion to each Member’s Membership Interest and, as a result, shall be in equal amounts. For this purpose each Member hereby agrees that for purpose of any determination of distributional interests pursuant to the Act the “agreed value” of the contributions made by each Member shall be equal and shall be $100.

(d)  Distributions to Manager Prohibited. The Manager shall not be eligible to receive any Distribution (but shall be entitled to receive the compensation contemplated by Section 10.04).

(e)  Commissioner. The Company shall make no distribution which requires the prior approval of the Commissioner unless it shall have received a written approval therefor from the Commissioner.

Section 8.05  Status of Members as Unsecured Creditors of LLC with Respect to Distributions. Each Member shall have the status of an unsecured creditor with respect to Distributions to which the Member has become entitled under the Agreement, but which have not yet been paid.
ARTICLE IX.

Transfers

Section 9.01 Transfers Prohibited.

(a) General Prohibition. A Member may not transfer its Membership Interest, distributional interest, membership rights, or any rights under this Agreement, and any such attempt shall be null and void and of no force and effect whatsoever; provided, however, that a Member shall have the right to transfer its Membership Interest to another entity that is its legal successor pursuant to merger or consolidation and which the Manager has confirmed in writing meets all of the Membership Qualifications.

(b) Specific Prohibition of Transfers to Non-Insureds. The transfer of Membership Interest to entities that are not insured by the LLC is strictly prohibited, and any proposed transfer to such an entity shall be null and void and at no force and effect whatsoever.

(c) Specific Prohibition of Transfers to Organizations Not Described in I.R.C. 501(c)(3). The transfer of membership rights to entities that are not described in I.R.C. § 501(c)(3) is strictly prohibited.

ARTICLE X.

The Manager

Section 10.01 Management of the LLC. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement with respect to matters reserved to the Members, the Members Committee or the Claims Committee, the Manager shall have full, complete and exclusive discretion to manage, conduct and control the business of the LLC for the purposes herein stated, and shall make all decisions affecting the business and assets of the LLC and operate the business of the LLC in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement. Subject to the restrictions specifically contained in this Agreement, the powers of the Manager shall include, without limitation, the authority to take all actions on behalf of the LLC that the Manager deems necessary or appropriate for the formation, continuation and conduct of the business and affairs of the LLC.

Section 10.02 Authority of Manager.

(a) The Manager may exercise any of the powers granted to it under law and this Agreement and perform any of the duties imposed upon it hereunder either directly or by or through a Captive Management Service Provider or other agents. Subject to applicable regulatory approvals, the Manager may appoint, employ, contract or otherwise deal with any person for the transaction of the business of the LLC and to perform any acts or services for the LLC as the Manager may approve.
(b) Without limiting the foregoing, the Manager is specifically authorized to execute on behalf of the LLC, as the Manager deems appropriate:

(i) policies of insurance with the Members,

(ii) the contract with the Captive Management Service Provider,

(iii) applications, certificates, reports and other instruments to be delivered from time to time the Commissioner or the Department or the applicable regulatory authorities in the states where the LLC is registered to do business as a risk retention group,

(iv) any surplus notes or other promissory notes, loan agreements or other evidence of indebtedness, and

(v) any other deeds, documents, leases, agreements, contracts, applications, notices or other instruments.

Section 10.03 Liability of the Manager.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, the Manager shall not be liable for monetary damages to the LLC or any Member for losses sustained or liabilities incurred as a result of its actions or omissions on behalf of the LLC under this Agreement, subject only to the standard to which a manager of a manager-managed Vermont limited liability company is held under § 3059(h)(2) of the Act. Consistent with this standard, the Manager shall not be in breach of any duty that the Manager may owe to the Members or the LLC or any other persons under this Agreement, or of any duty stated or implied at law or in equity, provided that the Manager, acting in good faith, abides by the terms of this Agreement. Also consistent with the foregoing standard:

(i) The Manager shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of the Captive Management Service Provider, the Claims Committee, the Members' Committee, other committees approved by the Members Committee, any attorney, or any other agent appointed or employed by it in good faith to act on behalf of the LLC; and

(ii) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement or the Act, any action of the Manager on behalf of the LLC or any decision of the Manager to refrain from acting on behalf of the LLC, undertaken in the good faith belief that such action or omission is necessary or advisable in order to

1) maintain the status of the LLC as a risk retention group under the FLRRA, as a charitable risk pool as described in I.R.C. § 501(n) or as an organization described in I.R.C. § 501(c)(3), or
2) comply with the legal, regulatory and other requirements applicable to the LLC under Vermont law or pursuant to requests or orders of the Commissioner or the Department, is expressly authorized and is deemed approved by all of the Members.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement or the Act, the Manager shall not be liable for any incidental, indirect, special, exemplary, punitive or consequential damages, including lost revenues or profits, even if such damages are deemed to result from the failure or inadequacy of any exclusive or other remedy.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement or the Act, the Manager shall not be responsible for and shall have no liability for any taxes assessed to or owed by the LLC or any Member.

(d) Except as otherwise provided herein, to the extent the duties of the Manager under the Agreement require expenditures of funds to be paid to third parties on behalf of the LLC, the Manager shall not have any obligations hereunder except to the extent that LLC funds are reasonably available to it for the performance of such duties, and nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or require the Manager, to expend its own funds for payment to third parties or of insurance claims against the LLC, or to undertake any individual liability or obligation on behalf of the LLC.

Section 10.04 Manager’s Compensation and Expenses. The Manager shall be entitled to be fully compensated and reimbursed for all its cost and expenses incurred in performing its services to the LLC in accordance with budgets approved as contemplated by Article 16. Such costs and expenses may include a reasonable allocation for overhead and management support provided to the Manager by its affiliates. Although the Manager shall perform services in accordance with such approved budgets, it shall in any case be entitled to be reimbursed for actual costs and expenses incurred in good faith in performing those services to the LLC required or contemplated by this Agreement, even if the reimbursement of such costs and expenses in any period would be in excess of approved budgets for such period.

Section 10.05 Appointment, Withdrawal, Removal, Bankruptcy, or Liquidation of the Manager.

(a) The Members hereby appoint and designate Alliance Risk Management Services LLC, a limited liability company organized under the Act, as the Manager of the LLC.

(b) The Manager shall not withdraw as Manager upon less than 180 days' prior written notice to the Members (unless by vote or action by two-thirds in number of Members agree to an earlier withdrawal).

(c) The Manager may not be removed by the Members Committee with or without cause.
(d) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Bankruptcy as to the Manager, the Manager shall be deemed to be removed automatically upon designation of a substitute Manager under Section 10.06 hereof.

(e) The merger of the Manager with or into any entity that is designated as a substitute or successor Manager pursuant to Section 10.06 hereof shall not be deemed to be the withdrawal, removal, or liquidation of the Manager.

Section 10.06 Designation of a Substitute Manager. A Person shall be designated as a substitute Manager of the LLC upon an affirmative vote or action of at least two-thirds in number of the Members, and satisfaction of the following terms and conditions:

(a) the entity to be designated as a substitute Manager shall (i) be an entity domiciled in, or organized under the laws of, Vermont, (ii) not be a Member, and (iii) have accepted and agreed to be bound by this Agreement by executing a counterpart thereof and such other documents or instruments as may be required or appropriate in order to effect the designation of such entity as a Manager, and all other actions required herein in connection with such designation shall have been performed; and

(b) the entity shall have provided the LLC with evidence satisfactory to the Members Committee on the advice of the counsel for the LLC of such entity's qualifications and authority to become a Manager and to be bound by this Agreement.

Section 10.07 Indemnification and Exculpation of Indemnitees.

(a) For purpose of this Section, “Indemnitee” means each of the Manager and its manager, member or other affiliates, including each officer, director, employee or agent of any of them; each member of the Members Committee; and each member of the Claims Committee.

(b) The LLC shall release, indemnify, and hold harmless each Indemnitee from and against any and all damages, losses, liabilities, obligations, claims, demands, suits, proceedings, recoveries, judgments, fines, settlements, costs and expenses, court costs, attorneys' fees, and all other obligations asserted against or suffered by such Indemnitee, to the extent resulting from, arising out of or related to the formation, operations or termination of the LLC, provided that the Indemnitee is not finally found, through a final and non-appealable order, to have acted in other than good faith or to have engaged in fraud or willful misconduct.

(c) Reasonable costs and expenses that are subject to the indemnification set forth in Section 10.07(a) may, at the request of the Indemnitee, be advanced by the LLC to such person prior to the final resolution of the matter, so long as the Indemnitee agrees in writing to reimburse the LLC for the amount advanced if it is ultimately determined that there was no entitlement to indemnification under Section 10.07(a).
(d) The LLC shall not indemnify an Indemnitee under this Section 10.07 in connection with a proceeding by the LLC in which the Indemnitee is finally adjudged liable to the LLC.

(e) The LLC may purchase and maintain insurance, on behalf of the Indemnitees and such other persons as the Manager shall determine, against any liability that may be asserted against or expenses that may be incurred by such person in connection with the LLC's activities, regardless of whether the LLC would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under the provisions of this Agreement.

(f) The foregoing indemnity is intended to indemnify and hold harmless the Indemnitees to the full extent permitted under § 4060 of the Act, and shall be interpreted in accordance with such intention.

(g) The indemnification rights contained in this Section 10.07 shall be cumulative of, and in addition to, any and all rights, remedies and recourse to which the Manager shall be entitled, whether pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, at law or in equity. Indemnifications shall be made solely and entirely from assets of the LLC, and no Member shall be personally liable to the Indemnitees under this Section 10.07.

(h) The rights and obligations hereunder with respect to indemnification shall survive an event of the resignation or discharge of the Manager or the dissolution, termination and liquidation of the LLC.

Section 10.08 Annual Certification as to Conflicts. Not less than once per year the Manager shall deliver to the Members Committee a certification as to its relationships (and those of any member, manager, director, officer or employee or their immediate family members) with the LLC, the Captive Management Service Provider or any other entity that has a business, vendor, consulting or service relationship with the LLC.

ARTICLE XI.
Member Meetings and Voting

Section 11.01 Meetings of Members. Members need not hold an annual meeting or otherwise meet on a periodic basis or ever. Given the number and geographic spread of the Members, regular meetings of Members are not anticipated. Nonetheless, a meeting of the Members may be called for any purpose or purposes at any time by the Manager or by written demand by a majority of Members.

Section 11.02 Notice of Meetings of Members. Those parties calling a meeting of the Members must give notice to the Members specifying the purposes of the meeting and setting a date, time, and place of the meeting; such meeting must occur at least thirty (30) days after, but no more than sixty (60) days after, all Members receive a notice under this Section. If such meeting does not occur within such time period, a new notice is required. The business transacted at a meeting of Members is limited to the purposes stated in the notice of the meeting, unless a majority of the Members at the meeting agree otherwise. Member meetings may be held within or without the State of Vermont, as specified in the notice. A Member may waive notice of the date, time, place, and purpose or purposes of a meeting of Members. A waiver may be made before, at, or after the meeting, in writing, orally, or by attendance. Attendance by a Member at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that meeting, unless the Member objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not properly called or convened, or objects before a vote on an item of business because the item may not properly be considered at that meeting and does not participate in the consideration of the item at that meeting.

Section 11.03  Conduct of the Meetings of Members.

(a)  The Manager shall chair any meeting of the Members.

(b)  Any meeting of the Members may be adjourned from time to time to another date and time and to another place. If at the time of adjournment, the Manager announces the date, time, and place at which the meeting will be reconvened, it is not necessary to give any further Notice of the reconvening.

(c)  A majority in number of the Members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Members.

(d)  Any or all Members may participate in a meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all Members participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A Member participating in a meeting by this means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

Section 11.04  Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Members may be taken without a meeting by action by the number of Members required for such action pursuant to Section 11.07. Such action is effective when taken by Members with the required votes. When action is taken by less than all Members, the Manager shall immediately send a notice to all Members notifying them of the action. Failure to provide such notice does not invalidate the written action.

Section 11.05  Method of Voting Outside of a Meeting.

(a)  Secure Online Voting. Any voting by Members outside of a meeting (including election of members of the Members Committee) is to be performed via a secure online voting system administered by the Captive Management Service Provider.
(b) Affirmation of Authority. The online voting system shall require that system users affirm that they have the authority to vote on behalf of the Member.

Section 11.06 Voting Period. Where a vote is required to decide a Member matter and a meeting of Members is not being held, there shall be a continuous period of ten (10) days wherein the Member may cast its vote. The Manager shall make reasonable efforts to notify all Members of the voting period prior to the beginning of the voting period. Dispatch of notice by electronic-mail to the e-mail address for the Member most recently provided to the Manager shall constitute reasonable efforts to notify. In no event shall the LLC or Manager be obligated to provide notice of voting on such matters by hand delivery or U.S. mail.

Section 11.07 Member Matters. Only the actions set forth in clauses (a) to (c) below shall require a vote, approval, consent or other act of the Members. The act of a majority in number of Members shall be the act of the Members, unless another provision of this Agreement requires a greater percentage. Each Member shall have one vote. Unless specifically otherwise provided for in this Agreement, the unanimous consent or affirmative unanimous vote of all of the Members shall not be required with respect to those matters enumerated in Section 4054(d) of the Act.

(a) The following shall require a unanimous act of the Members:

   (i) the amendment of the Articles;

   (ii) the compromise, as among Members, of an obligation of a Member to make a contribution or return money or other property paid or distributed in violation of the Act or this Agreement (the obligated member shall not be entitled to participate in such vote);

   (iii) the waiver of the right to have the LLC’s business wound up and the LLC terminated under § 3102(b) of the Act;

   (iv) the merger of the LLC, regardless of whether the LLC is the surviving entity; and

   (v) the sale, lease, exchange, or other disposal of all, or substantially all, of the LLC’s property in one transaction or a related series of related transactions.

Notwithstanding § 4054(d)(6) of the Act, the admission of a new Member does not require any act of the Members, the Members having set out in Article 5 of this Agreement the Membership Qualifications and procedures for the admission of new Members.

(b) The following shall require an act of two-thirds in number of the Members:

   (i) the removal and substitution of the Manager as provided in Section 10.05 and Section 10.06;
(ii) the amendment of this Agreement; and

(iii) the dissolution of the LLC pursuant to Article 18.

(c) The following shall require an act of a majority in number of the Members for (i) if taken by vote at a meeting, then approval by a majority in number of Members present and voting; or (ii) if the election of the members of the Members Committee, the majority of Members actually voting during the period prescribed by Section 11.06):
