- I will make disciplinary choices that will not interfere with events.
- I realize that my child's coaches will be contributing a significant amount of time and effort to provide a rewarding experience for the team. I will cooperate and be as helpful as possible.
- I am aware that my child will be using computers with internet access for research and robot programming.
- I understand that pictures of my child may be taken at team meetings or competitions. Photos may be used to document team activities, and for team presentation material.
- I authorize Gears of Faith, our partner schools, and coaches to provide reasonable medical care that may become necessary for my child during activities or travel.
- I understand that the safety of my child is primarily the responsibility of the parent. I will monitor, as appropriate based on age, my child's participation in the program.
