Hello Tim,
I just got off work & choose to communicate to the entire board instead so you'll see that email.

As for " And you were supposed to put that on the Website about donations. ", yep, its been there since Jan 8th.
I even had 1 guy ask me last week if we were going to have a season this year cause he saw it.

Have a good evening,

Evan Wagner

Evan,

I need to talk with you on this. My concern is the need to try and rush this thing through right now. There are so many things we don't know here. Let's back off this rash notion to rescind games. If our budget requires this we can lopp off games at the end of the season, as necessary. I have some money being donated. And you were supposed to put that on the Website about donations. I admit I have not looked for it there. But with the problems you have been having with the Website I doubt you were able to do much.

Tim
