

THE CHURCH MEDIA PODCAST

Episode 050: 50th Episode with Special Guest Victoria Jackson

Show Outline

Teaser:

The Church Media Podcast. Our 50th Episode with Special Guest Saturday Night Live Alum, Victoria Jackson. Let's do it.

Introduction:

Welcome to the Church Media Podcast. I'm Carl Barnhill your host. This is the definitive podcast for helping you create dynamic experiences and build a solid, thriving media production team at your church.

The podcast is going to sound a little different starting with this episode as we are adding some new segments, welcoming some new sponsors and partners and changing things up a little bit. I hope you enjoy the fresh sound.

This week I welcome a very special guest for our 50th show - Victoria Jackson will be joining me. You may know Victoria from Saturday Night Live - as she was a cast member on the show from 1986-1992. She is a born again Christian and we'll walk through her career as she talks about living out her faith in Hollywood and through other experiences she's had. She'll also talk about supporting faith based film projects. A little departure from our weekly church media stuff but I thought for our 50th show we'd do something a little fun. I've known Victoria for a few years and asked her to come on the show and she graciously said yes. So you'll hear my full interview with her a little later in the show.

But first we are introducing a new segment to the podcast called The Church Media Resource of the Week - giving you free tools you can use as you create experiences at your church. Check this out.

CHURCH MEDIA RESOURCE OF THE WEEK:

Zoom H1 Handy Recorder

Pocket-sized Handheld microSD Recorder with Built-in XY Stereo Mic Capsules. The ultra-compact H1 Handy Recorder brings new meaning to the term "portability." Small enough to slip in your pocket, it offers professional-quality stereo recording at an incredibly affordable price. Take it with you wherever you go—live concerts and band rehearsals, location video shoots, lectures and meetings—or use it to capture your musical ideas whenever inspiration strikes. Click over to Zoom's website for more details.

Audio Clip of Resource:

<https://s3.amazonaws.com/thechurchmediapodcast/Audio+for+the+Blog/CMR01+v3.20160805b+-+Web+Media+-+%5Btwelvethirty%5Dmedia.mp3>

SEGMENT 1:

I think it's going to be a fun new segment of the show. We already have dozens of church media guys and girls that have shared their favorite tools and resources with us that we'll be dropping into the show each week. If you would like to join in the fun and share a Church Media resource or tool that makes your job easier, shoot me an email at carl@twelvethirtymedia.com - and I'll reply back with details of how to get it featured on the show. Again- my email is carl@twelvethirtymedia.com.

Alright, so we have arrived at our 50th episode of the podcast. Each week we've shared with you some premium church media knowledge on building your volunteer team, helping you in the areas of audio, video, lighting, stage design and more to help you create powerful experiences at your church. We've talked to some of the best minds in our field - people like Kirk Cameron, Kevin Downes, John Schlitt, Chonda Pierce, Phil Vischer, Jonathan Malm, Brady Shearer and others.

We've produced each episode of the podcast where they can stand alone so you can bounce around and listen to any episode you want. So I want to encourage you that if you are just finding us, we'd love for you to take a dive into the archives and listen to past episodes of the show. Go to twelveythirdymedia.com/podcast and click on the episode that you'd like to listen to - we embed the show audio right there on the site with the Show Notes so everything is right there for you.

We try to load up each episode with tons of free content for you - transcripts, free PDFs of gear lists, checklists, content for your production teams and and other free stuff. We also embed videos you can share, weblinks, free books and articles where you can implement the content at your church. Check that out - twelvethirtymedia.com/podcast. If you've been listening since we started, thank you so much. I'm very grateful for your emails, notes, and feedback you send our way. Feel free to continue to offer your insight and suggestions. I love hearing from you guys. carl@twelvethirtymedia.com.

Alright, when we come back, I'll welcome my very special guest to the show this week. Former Saturday Night Live cast member Victoria Jackson will be joining me. The interview moments away.

Exclusive Interview Victoria Jackson:

<https://s3.amazonaws.com/thechurchmediapodcast/S2E50+v3.20160805a+-+Church+Media+Podcast+-+%5Btwelvethirty%5Dmedia.mp3>

COMMERCIAL:

"Is My Bow Too Big?" Book by Victoria Jackson

More about Victoria Jackson's book here.

CLOSING SEGMENT:

What a treat. Victoria is awesome and I hope you enjoyed getting to know her a little bit. I know its a little departure from the ins and outs of church media. But sometimes I want to make you aware of resources and other believers that are out there producing content that you and your volunteers need to support. Victoria is making an effort to really support budding Christian filmmakers and local content that will strengthen believers in their faith - I want to encourage you to be watching for her and others and go support their projects.

Another thing I want you to catch from our show today is that Victoria is a strong believer that is not in the Christian bubble that I'm guessing you and I are. Your volunteers are not on a church staff, they are working as teachers, lawyers, accountants and all other kinds of jobs and they are trying to live for Jesus in the "real world". Throw interviews like this one out on your team Facebook page, and other social media outlets - provide your team with fun content from believers that are trying to live for Jesus wherever he places them.

Well guys that's it for us this week. We went a little longer this week to celebrate our 50th show. I hope you stay with us for the next 50! We have some very exciting guests and topics lined up that I can't wait to share with you.

I want to thank my guest today - the lovely Victoria Jackson.

Again, to follow Victoria, you can visit her website for articles, videos and more - check out victoriajackson.com

I'll put some links and videos in the Show Notes page for this episode. Simply go to twelvethirtymedia.com/podcast, and click on episode #50.

Next week on the show, I welcome the former Lead Singer of the Christian Rock Band Petra - John Schlitt will be in the house. John is a solid guy - incredibly humble and so generous with his time and insight. We're going to chat about his nearly 40 years in music and ministry - John gives some great insight into how he has been a part of creating concert experiences and live shows, how he works with his media team and more. He also shared some stories of when everything went wrong from a technical perspective and how he and the band recovered and pressed on. Fun story - you don't want to miss that.

As always, I want to thank my producer David Michael Hyde. David is a Contemporary composer and music producer for film and digital media. If you dare, go to davidmichaelhyde.com to find him. DavidMichaelHyde.com. Check him out today.

Thanks for listening this week.

We would love it if you took a minute today and rated and reviewed our podcast in iTunes. It helps us in the search and ratings database so that more and more churches - church media staff and volunteers can get our content. Take a minute and do that today if you would.

I also welcome your ideas and topics for future episodes of the podcast - feel free to e-mail me directly at carl@twelvethirtymedia.com.

Go out there guys and create some incredible experiences this Sunday.

I'll catch you next week.