

CONTRACT COUNSELOR

OUR MISSION

Our mission at Ridge Counseling Services (RCS) is to do whatever it takes to provide affordable, high-quality counseling services that integrate faith and evidence-based practices.

OUR VISION

We are dedicated to supporting individuals and families in their journey toward healing by removing barriers and offering compassionate care, promoting mental health awareness, and creating a safe, inclusive environment where everyone feels valued and supported. Through our commitment to accessibility, empathy, and professional excellence, we strive to be a beacon of hope and restoration in our community.

THIS ROLE

As a 1099 Counselor at Ridge Counseling Services, you will minister through clinical and biblical counseling techniques to individuals, who are seeking help for a variety of issues, including depression, anxiety, relational issues, trauma, spiritual issues and concerns, grief and more. You will be responsible for delivering counseling services consistent with the RCS, vision, beliefs, and evidence-based clinical interventions to empower our clients to find emotional and spiritual healing.

JOB DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

- Typically provide between six to eight one-hour sessions per client.
- Once the initial intake is complete, contact the client within 48 hours to schedule.
- Rely on experience and judgment to create a plan and goals, focusing on root causes from a holistic perspective with a biblical understanding of the human person.
- Help clients move toward emotional, spiritual, and physical health.
- When appropriate, incorporate Christian disciplines (such as prayer, forgiveness, and Scripture reading) into the process.
- Work collaboratively with other members of the client's treatment team (psychiatrist, medical doctor, family members, significant others, or pastors as identified by the client).
- Protect the client's confidential information.
- Complete the required documentation to monitor the identified client's progress and ensure that all documentation is in the client's file within the time frame established by RCS.
- Prepare for, attend, and participate in individual sessions.

QUALIFICATIONS & EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS

- Possess a vibrant and growing faith in Jesus Christ.
- Be an encourager and have a positive attitude.
- Maintain active membership and participation at a local church.
- Hold a license or certification from a Christian counseling program and/or other formal education and experience practicing counseling with the integration of the Christian faith.

Email your resume and cover letter to jobs@ridgecounselingservices.org